Women in Nazi Germany - Click Me

Directions: Read over the document linked above and respond to the questions below

WOMEN & THE FAMILY

1. How did Hitler try & encourage marriage as soon as he came to power?

2. According to Nazi ideology, what roles did men & women have?

Men	Women

3. Why do you think Hitler placed such an importance on the role of women?

4. What are some differences between our society today & Nazi Germany in the 1930s?

Nazi Germany in the 1930s	Our Society Today
Women were not expected to have "Professional Jobs"	Women have the freedom to choose a career

5. What evidence is there to suggest that there are some contradictions in Nazi policies towards women? (Contradictions = things that don't make sense, don't agree with, or don't put across the same idea as the purpose that is stated)

YOUNG PEOPLE IN NAZI GERMANY - Click Me

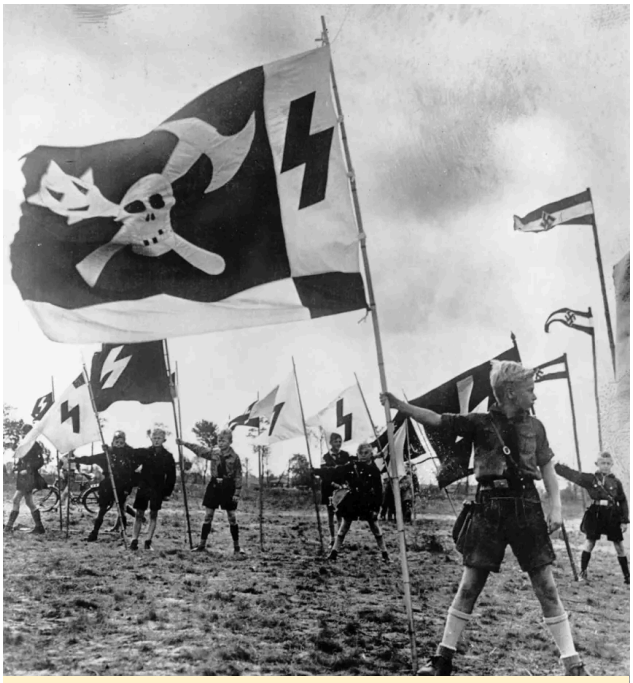

Directions: Read over the document linked above and respond to the questions below

1. Why do you think Hitler placed such an importance on the youth of Germany?

2. How were schools changed by the Nazis? What was done to make sure teachers followed the changes?

3. How does the Math equation in Source A reflect Nazi ideas? – Identify two ways!

4. Using your own words, explain Hitler's aims for the Hitler Youth (Source B). Why do you think Hitler had these aims?

From the sixth year of age, German boys have to join the Nazi organization of youth. Equipped with uniforms and flags, they undergo strenuous physical training that leaves them well prepared for the two years they will later serve in the Wehrmacht. (Credit: Hulton-Deutsch Collection/Corbis via Getty Images)

Summary Assessment: Write out the top 2 arguments in response to the following quote. Explain your ideas (in brief) providing evidence from the assignment, the readings, and your understanding of the Nazi Policies. "The Nazis indoctrinated the children - all aspects of their life were controlled by the Nazis. Children were carefully groomed to become perfect Nazis."

Argument #1:

Argument #2: