T-LEVELS

300 Onsite Construction Core

9. Relationship management in construction

Multiple choice questions (learner)

- 1. What type of stakeholder would a client most commonly be?
 - a. Negative stakeholder
 - b. Positive stakeholder
 - c. Indirect stakeholder
 - d. Direct stakeholder
- 2. Select two forms of information found in an employment contract
 - a. Working hours
 - b. Colleague details
 - c. Holiday entitlements
 - d. Working area risk assessments
- 3. Which level of BIM did the government introduce to encourage collaborative working on publicly funded projects?
 - a. BIM Level 3
 - b. BIM Level 2
 - c. BIM Level 0
 - d. BIM Level 4
- 4. Which of the following legislations sets out the nine protected characteristics?
 - a. National Minimum wage 1998
 - b. Employment Act 2008
 - c. The Equality Act 2010
 - d. Health and Safety at Work Act 1974

Construction: Onsite Construction (Level 3)

300 Onsite Construction Core

	of discrimination?
	a. Direct discriminationb. Indirect discriminationc. Victimisationd. Harassment
6. Formal communication moves more feely and is often a quick way to communicate but does not provide a paper trail
	a. True b. False
7.	What year was the Latham Report commissioned?
	a. 1994b. 1974c. 1984d. 2004
8.	Which of the following can a trade union help with?
	a. Negotiating pay and working conditionsb. Attending and supporting members during disciplinary meetingsc. Discussing members' concerns with employersd. All of the above
9.	An employee must maintain confidentiality regarding matters relating to the organisation

5. Treating someone unfairly because they have complained about harassment is which type

a. Trueb. False

Construction: Onsite Construction (Level 3)

300 Onsite Construction Core

- 10. A documented meeting would be classified as which form of communication?
 - a. Informal
 - b. Formal

