

Holly A. Lupacchino, age 57, of South Windsor, passed away Monday, April 19, 2021 in Boston, MA with her family by her side. She was born in Hartford, CT, on October 31, 1963, the daughter of Beverly (Knowlton) Mathis and Anthony Lupacchino. Holly grew up in Enfield and attended Enfield High School, until she moved to South Windsor in her junior year, where she graduated from South Windsor High School.

She worked as a computer programmer at CBT from 1984 to 1990 in Applications Programming. She subsequently worked as a private corporate flight attendant and then as a legal assistant. She was active in the community and taught CCD at St. Margaret Mary Church, volunteered with brownies and girl scouts and dedicated time at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Foodshare. Holly was a devote and loving mother who enjoyed spending time with her children. She also enjoyed biking, golfing, and cooking.

Along with her mother, Beverly of Bedford, VA, and her father, Anthony of East Windsor she leaves her children, Michael A. Woodcock of South Windsor, and Kathryn L. Woodcock of Boston, MA; and her brother, Christopher Lupacchino of VA, as well as many family members and friends. Family and friends may gather on Saturday, May 1, 2021, 8:30 a.m. at the Samsel & Carmon Funeral Home, 419 Buckland Rd., South Windsor; followed by a Mass of Christian Burial, 9:30 a.m., at St. Margaret Mary Church. Burial will follow at Wapping Cemetery in South Windsor. Her family will receive friends on Friday, April 30, 2021 from 4 – 7 p.m., at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers donations can be made, in Holly's Memory to Foodshare at 450 Woodland Ave, Bloomfield CT 06002. Please visit www.carmonfuneralhome.com for online condolences.
