

Leo's first art project!!!!

Mrs. Sari excused every table in the class. "Ugh!" Leo thought. "I am probably going to get the worst stuff ever!!!" Leo was wearing a black jacket with blue jeans. Mrs. Sari excused their table. "Finally." Leo sighed. He looked at Gillian. Colten went in his face and said, "Hey Leo I know you like Gillian, but you are still in 2nd grade." Leo grabbed a paper and went back to his table.

Leo was excited because he was having a playdate with Gillian. He looked at his project. He sighed, "horse racing, Here it is!!" He glued the horse paper in. Gillian came over and complemented, "Nice project. I love horses." "Thanks." Leo responded. Colten came over and growled, "Leo win this project then fight me over Gillian." "Whatever." Leo responded back.

Leo finished his project. He looked at it. His picture was a boy on a horse in the water. "Allright guys time to see who has the best project for the contest!!!!"

Everybody showed their project. Leo was partners with Gillian. They both shared their project. When they were done, they explained the winners. The teacher said, "The winners are LEO AND GILLIAN!!!!!! They were both given metals.
