

Mastery Check #3:

Watch the instructional video(s) for review if you're not ready, then complete the following:

- Have a discussion with someone/a group, explain how do these literary movements connect to the Master or Counter narrative?
- 10 pts: Then, summarize your discussion.
- 10 pts: Include the First & Last names of whom you worked with
- 30 pts: Choose realism or naturalism, and find ONE piece of evidence from the unit reader that is representative of how that literary movement perpetuates the Master narrative or challenges it as a Counter narrative. See rubric for details

Mastery Checks are expected to be in the A range. If your response does not meet the "Should Do"/A range on the first try, you can go back and revise for a better grade until you master it (approved by Mr. B). If you have questions, come ask, you got this!

Mastery Check #3

Avery Balasbas · Oct 12, 2022 (Edited Oct 12, 2022)

50 points

Due Oct 14, 2022

Watch the instructional video(s) for review if you're not ready, then complete the following:

- Have a discussion with someone/a group, explain how do these literary movements connect to the Master or Counter narrative?
- 10 pts: Then, summarize your discussion.
- 10 pts: Include the First & Last names of whom you worked with
- 30 pts: Choose realism or naturalism, and find ONE piece of evidence from the unit reader that is representative of how that literary movement perpetuates the Master narrative or challenges it as a Counter narrative. See rubric for details

Mastery Checks are expected to be in the A range. If your response does not meet the "Should Do"/A range on the first try, you can go back and revise for a better grade until you master it (approved by Mr. B). If you have questions, come ask, you got this!

Discussion Thread Rubric
Google Docs

L2.MC3 AMLIT
YouTube video • 1 minute