Slogan: "The dream of Humanity united using science and sustainable technology to bring the promise of a more just and compassionate existence to Earth and to the stars beyond."

Asgardian Prime Directive: In order to ensure peace in space the Asgardian Prime Directive should be:

"To advocate for a change in Humanity's social, political, and economic systems so that we can save ourselves and our planet of origin from our own self-inflicted horrors and the systems that created them. We shall do so using Seven Philosophical Pillars: Science and Technology, Interdependence, Sustainability, Humanity, Justice and Compassion, Equity, and Education as prime drivers and guides for effecting that change and bringing peace to Humanity where ever we shall find ourselves."
