

Ratified on February 9, 2021

Constitutional Amendment I: Marketing and Sale of National Images and Products

1. The Treasury of the Free Nation of New Athens maintains the right to produce and market merchandise related to the nation and its images.
2. The Treasury of the Free Nation of New Athens maintains the right to set the price at which individuals can purchase national merchandise.
3. The Treasury of the Free Nation of New Athens maintains the right to commission the production of national merchandise from any company, business, individual or otherwise of their choosing.