

NON-LOCALLY FUNDED PROGRAMS

1. The Director of Finance shall issue procedures for the approval process for any grants or other funding for school division programs. All grant procedures are located in the Finance Procedure Manual at each school and with all budget holders.
2. The Superintendent may submit proposals or applications for special grants prior to approval by the School Board. No such application or proposal shall be binding on the Board without its approval.
3. Any person not complying with the grant process may be required to deny funds and may be subject to disciplinary consequences.
