

Media Studies Introduction

Either:

Choose two video games that you play (these can be on any device – phones , hand held etc) BUT try and find a game that stated at least 5- 10 years ago , and on that is relatively recent.

Write 250 words on:
the history and evolution of the games.

AND

250 words on:

How the games are played and work

What appeal they have for you as a player.

How and when you play them (do you play alone? with friends?)

If you could make changes to the game – what would you do?

OR:

Find a music artist that you like:

Choose two of their videos –(one from early in their career and one from later)

AND

Write a brief history of the artist, (250 words)

Then discuss the two videos. (250 words)

What appeal do they have for an audience?

How would you describe the videos?

Have a great summer – watching / engaging with as much media as possible!
