

MiSendero Club Constitution

Article I- Organization

- a. MiSendero
- b. Integrate students who are English Learners into our school community by empowering them with leadership opportunities.
- c. Provide English Learners and bilingual people fluent in s with leadership opportunities as Spanish tutors. This service will benefit both English Learners who can earn community service as tutors but also students taking Spanish classes who will have access to free peer tutoring. Our goal is also to build bridges between students who are recent immigrants and the wider school community.
- d. Meetings will be once every other Wednesday at lunch in room L1.

Article II- Membership

Students who are immigrants and/or bilingual and want to be Spanish tutors, club leaders and students who want to receive Spanish tutoring and learn more about the immigrant and/or bilingual community at school are all welcome to become club members.

Article III- Officers and Elections

- a. Officers
 - President: Organizes and leads club meetings, renews club in the fall
 - Vice President: Assists President with club duties, substitutes for the President if they are absent
 - Treasurer: Manages club finances and budget forms
 - Secretary: Takes minutes and role call
- b. Terms are one year lasting from the fall of the previous year to the fall of the next year when new elections take place
- c. Officers may be removed if they do not comply with their assigned roles or have a conflicting activity and a new officer may replace them by vote

Article IV- Faculty Advisor

- a. Club adviser who is supportive of the work MiSendero does is eligible for selection
- b. Duties including overseeing the club meetings during lunch and signing community service forms for Spanish tutors
- c. Advisers may be removed if they do not comply with their assigned role or have a conflict in which case they will be replaced.

Article V- Financial Responsibilities

- a. The budget will be created by the Treasurer and approved by the President and Advisor
- b. The Treasurer, President and Advisor will meet to monitor and amend the budget

Article VI- Elections

- a. Elections will take place at the beginning of the school year in the fall. All club members are eligible to become officers and will nominate themselves. The club will vote to approve officers who nominate themselves.

Article VII- Amendments to the Constitution

- a. The Constitution can be amendment by the President with approval from the Advisor
- b. Expenses are approved by a club vote and the Advisor's approval