Coconino High School Weekly Learning Guide

Course	Survey	Week Assigned	4/20/20
Lesson Title	Personal Finance - Part 3
Teacher(s), Email, & Other Contact Information	ggarcia@fusd1.org
Target Standards	National Standards for Economics: • Standard 1: Scarcity • Standard 2: Decision Making
Learning Goal	<ul> <li>Assess personal spending behavior</li> <li>Understand the concept of opportunity cost</li> <li>Evaluate spending choices when it comes to personal wants versus needs</li> </ul>
Essential Questions	How can I spend my money responsibly?
Learning Activity	<ul> <li>Part 1: <ul> <li>Answer the question: what would you do if you had a million dollars? (e.g. buy a new laptop, help out a friend, etc.) Make a huge list of all you would do.</li> <li>What is the difference between a want and a need? Give three examples of each.</li> <li>Learning to separate wants from needs: Go through your million dollar list and split it into two groups: wants and needs.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Part 2: <ul> <li>Use the attached handout</li> <li>Go through each of the case studies in the pdf and identify which things are wants and which are needs.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Part 3: <ul> <li>Reflection: write one paragraph describing the importance of identifying the wants and needs in your life before making a purchase.</li> </ul> </li> <li>The lesson can be found in google classroom and in the google folder (link below).</li> <li>Expectation: Upload your work for all parts into the google classroom.</li> </ul>
Resources	Google Classroom Code: itjywlh Google Drive Folder: Survey
Extension & Enrichment	Make at least one comment on the qotw (Question of the Week) message in the google classroom stream.				