Call for Cambodia Youth Internet Governance Forum Participants

Background

In 2023, Open Development Cambodia (ODC) introduced YIGF to Cambodian youth for the first time. It aimed to raise the awareness of youth about Internet governance discourse and encourage the young generation to have more active engagement in policy discussion and the decision-making process.

YIGF Cambodia offers an open platform for youth to freely discuss and exchange their views and perspectives on Internet governance. It also acts as a preparatory camp for students to comprehend numerous Internet concerns and opens a door for them to participate in the worldwide digital policy development conversation.

Cambodia Youth Internet Governance Forum 2024 is an important contribution to Cambodia's government and the global Internet Governance Forum, which serves to bring people from various stakeholder groups together as equals in discussions on public policy issues relating to the Internet.

The Cambodia Youth Internet Governance Forum Organizing Committee is excited to announce the call for participants for the Cambodia Youth Internet Governance Forum (YIGF) 2024.

The Cambodia YIGF participants play a crucial role in shaping the future of the internet and ensuring that they engage in discussions, policy, multistakeholder roleplay, and debates on internet governance issues; moreover, the youth participants can take an active role in shaping the internet's development in the community.
