

Paris-Saclay Conference on Trade and Environment – May 13-14, 2024Venue: Campus Agro Paris Saclay, 22 place de l'Agronomie - 91120 Palaiseau

All presentations, keynote lectures, and breaks will be in Room C1.006 (Main aula at the ground floor, building C1). Lunches will be at the Canopée (top floor of the main building).

Dinner will be at Le 19 in Palaiseau (close to the campus)*19 Cours Gilbert Simondon, 91120 PalaiseauOrganizers: Basak Bayramoglu, Bertille Daran, Clément NedoncelleSponsors: INRAE Département EcoSocio, Graduate School Biosphera, Graduate School Economie & Management, UMR Paris-Saclay Applied Economics, AgroParisTech. Thanks!Contact: saclay-conference2024@inrae.fr

Monday 13th May, 2024

9:00	Welcome
9:20	Introduction
9:30 - 11.00	Session: Trade Agreements Chair: Bertille Daran

What type of trade is promoted by environmental regulations?

Thais Nunez Rocha (Univ. Orléans - LEO)

The heterogenous trade effects of trade agreements with environmental provisions

Bettina Meinhardt (IIASA)

From Forests to Foreign Markets: Evaluating the Effectiveness of Sustainability Certification in Tackling Agricultural-Driven Tropical Deforestation

Eva Boonaert (KU Leuven)

11.00 - 11.30	Coffee break
11.30 - 12.30	Keynote Lecture - Clara Brandi (IDOS and Uni. Bonn) "Trade, Environment and International Agreements"
12.30 - 14.00	Lunch at the Canopée

14.00 - 15.30

Session: Weather Shocks

Chair: Clément Nedoncelle

The impact of weather shocks on exports

Leanne Cass (LSE)

Weather Shocks as Local Cost Shocks: Estimating their Effects when Regions Trade

Hélène Ollivier (CNRS, PSE)

Climate Change and Trade: Risky Gravity for Wineries

Philippe Bontems (INRAE, TSE)

15.30 - 16.00

Coffee Break

16.00 - 17.30 Session: Climate Policy

Chair: Basak Bayramoglu

The economics of carbon leakage mitigation policies

Stefan Ambec (INRAE, TSE)

A carrot or a stick? The potential of carbon border adjustments to foster climate cooperation

Timothé Beaufigli (PIK, Potsdam)

Economic performance and climate policy in the EU: Insights from firm-level data

Alienor Cameron (Climate Economics Chair, EconomiX)

19.00

Dinner at Le 19

Tuesday 14th May, 2024

9:30 - 11.00 Session: Natural resources and trade

Chair: Jean-François Jacques

Substantial gains and little downside from farming of Totoaba macdonaldi

Simon Jean (CIRED)

Structure and dynamics of the industrial roundwood trade from a network analysis perspective: increasing tensions over forest resources

Valentin Mathieu (AgroParisTech, SILVA, BETA)

Infrastructure aid for resource trade? The crossroads of strategy and sustainable development

Camelia Turcu (Univ. Orléans, LEO)

11.00 - 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 - 12.30 Keynote Lecture - Farid Farrokhi

Deforestation: A Global and Dynamic Perspective

12.30 - 14.00 Lunch at the Canopée (hopefully, outside !)

14.00 - 15.30 Session: Trade and Emissions

Chair: Martin Jégard

Production Fragmentation, Trade and Emissions

Riccardo Norbiato (CREST)

Climate Policy and Trade in Polluting Technologies

Shon Ferguson (Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences)

The Carbon Footprint of Global Trade Imbalances

Hendrik Mahlkow (WIFO, IfW Kiel)

15.30 - 16.00 Coffee Break

16.00 - 17.00 Session: Development

Chair: Bertille Daran

Industrial policy and input market access: Evidence from Nigerian fertiliser

Ricardo Guzman (AMSE)

Climate Immobility in Sub-Saharan Africa

Edouard Pignède (INRAE PSAE, Climate Economics Chair)

17.00

End of workshop