Boiler Room Presents: The Haunted Underground

London's biggest Halloween party of the season

Boiler Room announces London's largest Halloween event of the season: The Haunted Underground. At 9:00 PM on Saturday, October 28th, doors to London's famous Fabric nightclub will open to ticket holders for an event like no other. Headliners such as Swedish House Mafia, Fred Again, Maceo Plex, Lil Uzi Vert, and deadmau5 will hit each of Fabric's three levels. Prepare for a night of electropop, acid techno, and witch house fit for the holiday!

The club itself will look different than ever before. Boiler Room is re-working the iconic venue into a gothic, foggy horror-house unlike anything London has ever seen! From the moment guests step inside, they'll be met with ghosts and ghouls galore. Costumes are strongly encouraged, and guests should be prepared to interact with scare actors near the entrance and scattered throughout the venue—the photo opportunities will be endless!

Tickets drop THIS FRIDAY at 1:00 PM (UT). As this is a once in a lifetime event, it is expected that they'll sell fast. Hopeful attendees are encouraged to sign up for alerts from Boiler Room to ensure their spot in the queue.

About Boiler Room

Boiler Room started with a webcam taped to a wall, opening a keyhole into London's underground. Since 2010, we've built a unique archive spanning over 8000 performances by more than 5000 artists across 200 cities. Today, we remain true to that history. We support emerging artists. We tell stories from the fringes. We connect local dance floors to the wider world. Tickets available always on our website: <https://boilerroom.tv/> to join us at a city near you. Keep up with us @boilerroomtv on all social media.
