Course Description

Italian III ACP is an intermediate course continuing the emphasis on oral communication with greater proficiency in the target language. The development of conversational flexibility in a range of circumstances beyond immediate survival needs is stressed, as is reading and writing competence. Contemporary Italian culture is explored in greater depth.

Based upon the following list of proficiencies, each student must demonstrate a minimum competency level of 65%. Competencies will be measured by way of an evaluation program consisting of teacher observations of student performance, tests, quizzes, classwork, homework, projects, and class participation, as well as class attendance in accordance with the high school's attendance policy.

New Jersey learning Standards covered throughout the course

In conjunction with the New Jersey Student Learning Standards, students enrolled in the Italian III ACP will demonstrate the ability to:

Interpretive:
7.1.IL.A.1 Identify the main idea and most supporting details contained in culturally authentic materials using electronic information and other sources related to targeted themes.
7.1.IL.A.2 Demonstrate comprehension of oral and written instructions connected to daily activities through appropriate responses.
7.1.IL.A.3 Compare and contrast the use of verbal and non-verbal etiquette (i.e., the use of gestures, intonation, and cultural practices) in the target culture(s) and in one's own culture.
7.1.IL.A.4 Use the target language to describe people, places, objects, and daily activities learned about through oral or written descriptions.
7.1.IL.A.5 Demonstrate comprehension of conversations and written information on a variety of topics.
7.1.IL.A.7 Infer the meaning of a few unfamiliar words in some new contexts.
7.1.IL.A.8 Compare and contrast unique linguistic elements in English and the target language.
