

Assessment - Geo-Politics Unit

Step One

Go back to the Geo-Politics Anticipation Guide where you filled out the Before section at the beginning of the unit. Now that you have gone through lessons and activities on geo-politics, answer the After section.

Step Two

The geo-politics unit was created using Essential Questions and Learning Targets. Choose at least one pair of Essential Question-Learning Target and write a response using geo-political vocabulary and examples. Write your response below your Geo-Politics Anticipation Guide. Your response should be at least 10 sentences long, correctly use at least four geo-politics vocabulary and have examples.

Geo-Politics Vocabulary

Geo-Politics	Nation	Nationalism
Boundary	Country/State	Colonialism
Physical Boundary	Nation-State	Imperialism
Political Boundary	Stateless Nation	Supranational

Essential Question-Learning Target Pairs

Essential Question 1: What is geo-politics?

Learning Target 1: I can explain geo-politics as the relationship between countries/states and/or nations.

Essential Question 2: How are political boundaries constructed?

Learning Target 2: I can describe the effects of nationalism on boundaries.

Essential Question 3: How do boundaries constructed by European colonialism affect the world today?

Learning Target 3: I can analyze the impact of colonialism on tensions that arise from imposed boundaries.

Essential Question 4: How does supranationalism affect economic activities?

Learning Target 4: I can describe how a supranational functions.