

Memory Map Writing Prompts¹

Here is a list of prompts that we'll be using to design our Memory Maps/ Google Drawings. Please complete them, to the best of your ability, in the order they're given.

1. What is your first memory?
2. Describe a special place from your childhood.
3. Point to an important event from your early adolescence.
4. Discuss a hobby or activity that has stayed with you.
5. How does a particular childhood possession symbolize your growth and change?
6. What childhood activity captures your current identity?
7. What event from your early adolescence shows a special quality you possess today?
8. What decision did you make that has had lasting consequences?
9. Name an adult who's had a positive influence on you.
10. What event symbolizes a hidden talent you have?
11. Finally, cite a memory filled with color and action that demonstrates a rite of passage (which is a moment where you grew up in an important way).
