

Hello there, coachparry team

I have to say thanks for all the work that you guys put into the youtube videos. They helped me PB my half marathon. I also love the coaching program. I heard only good reviews from it.

I want to help the business so more people can get the good advice that you guys put out there. After my research about what the top coaches are doing and what you guys are doing. I came up with a few ideas such as monetizing your attention more effectively. That will make you get more customers. And get more sales.

One of my ideas was that you guys will host an event. And I will use my skills to promote it. I have done this in the past and I don't mind sharing it with you guys. The power of hosting an event like this is it gets more people on the email list, more followers and more sales.

Let's schedule a call to dive into the details and explore the potential of these concepts together!

Have a great rest of your day,
