10/1 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook: A well-behaved dog starts with structure at home. Setting boundaries around food, play, and relaxation teaches your dog what's expected of them in every situation. Dogs thrive when they understand the rules, and consistent training prevents confusion. When your dog respects boundaries indoors, you'll see that same respect carry over into public settings.

Dog training is about more than teaching sit, stay, and come. It's about building a communication system between you and your dog. Clear cues, consistent body language, and calm leadership show your dog how to succeed. Commands alone don't create a well-behaved dog — communication and trust do.

10/6 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook: Many owners struggle with leash pulling, but the problem often comes down to leadership and communication. When a dog pulls, they believe they're leading the walk. By practicing consistency and calm redirection, you teach your dog to follow your pace instead of dragging you along. Training a loose-leash walk takes patience, but it builds trust and makes walks more enjoyable for both dog and owner.

10/8 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook, Tik Tok (Video in the email): Making sure you have the proper leash and it is on correctly is important for training the dog for walks. Let us show you! #MidasTouchDogObedienceSchool #KCDogTrainer #DogTraining

10/10 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook Training doesn't happen only in class. Every walk, meal, or playtime is a chance to reinforce good behavior. Consistency is what creates lasting results. The more your dog experiences structure in daily routines, the more natural obedience becomes.

10/13 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook:

Mixed signals confuse dogs. If you let them jump up sometimes but not others, they won't know what's expected. Training succeeds when the rules are clear, consistent, and fair. Dogs thrive on predictability — it's what allows them to relax and trust their environment.

10/17 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook, TikTok (Video is attached to email) : Life is better when you have dogs! At Midas Touch Dog Obedience School, we love training our dogs and pups to be their greatest potential. #MidasTouchDogObedienceSchool #KCDogTrainer #DogTraining

10/20 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook: Structure isn't about being strict — it's about giving your dog clarity. When your dog knows the rules, they feel more secure and confident. This reduces stress and prevents unwanted behavior. If your home feels chaotic, it may be because your dog doesn't know what to expect. Training provides that structure. Want to bring more calm into your home? Reach out and let's build it together.

10/22 at 9:00 am, both Instagram and Facebook: Bad habits don't disappear on their own. Jumping, barking, or leash pulling will continue until they're replaced with better behaviors. The earlier you address these habits, the easier they are to change. Prevention is always easier than correction.
