(Taken From SoSuave off the Swipe File).

Hi Nice Guy,

I recently launched a book which 120k men have read, And there's a reason why.

This book will make sure those embarrassing memories and failures with women from your high-school years to the present day are no longer.

Haven't you always dreamed of having female companions fall into your arms after just a few spoken words?

Don't you want that glowing confidence which makes you irresistible?

Or do you wanna be the guy that relies on his right hand.....

Up to you.
