How Do You Spell Unfair by Carole Boston Weatherford (B – COX)

In 1936, 8th grader MacNolia Cox became the first African American to win the Akron, OH, spelling bee. And with that win, she was asked to compete at the National Bee in Washington, DC, where she and a girl from NJ were the 1st African Americans invited since its founding. But celebration turned to chill when the train crossed the state line into MD, where segregation was the law. Prejudice and discrimination ruled-- sadly, at the spelling bee itself..
