

Amber Trzcinski- Panelist, Employee Retention

Amber moved to the Roaring Fork Valley in 1999 for what was supposed to be “one more winter” in a ski town. She has spent the past 20 years building her career as an organizational leader in various industries including food and beverage, hospitality, real estate and now technology. She joined Bluetent as their first dedicated Human Resources employee in 2017 and has been responsible for growing their headcount from 35 to 85 employees, along with all other facets of HR. Amber is passionate about workplace culture and employee engagement.

In her free time she enjoys skiing, cycling, camping, hiking and spending time with her husband, son and friends.

Linkedin

<https://www.bluetent.com/>

