Timeline

Jacob has had an eventful life full of challenges. As a baby he was sexually abused for three to four months when living in the house of friends of his parents by a group of teenagers. As a child who was very sensitive and didn't fit the status quo, Jacob was teased a lot by his siblings and then his friends, peers and students at primary and secondary schools. These were emotional and physical abuse. Sometimes around forty students would pick on him at once, laughing and calling him names, being pushed to the ground, hit and kicked. Stones were thrown at him on his way home, he experienced being put in a dark box and one day he was bound up with a rope and tied to a fence, where a teacher found him hours later, to name a few.

On to the New Zealand drinking culture, where he experienced alcohol, marijuana and porn additions for many years, encountering lots of violence during these years, being gang bashed and blind hooked many times, as well as verbal abuse. In his thirties, after leaving an abusive marriage, he was using excessive amounts of class A drugs for a year or two, where he became weak and not wanting to live. He was about 45kg (100 pounds). This led to something odd that was in his body which he was aware of in his mid twenties started to get worse.

He was super active with sports all his life and was always competing. Some at representative level. These were his survivors in life, especially snow-skiing. Around thirty six years old, after many tests and lots of specialists scratching their heads, he was diagnosed with a rare muscular dystrophy. He was told he would end up in a wheelchair and his left arm would freeze (no movement). A couple of years later a good friend suddenly died and this set him on a new pathway.

The dystrophy is there to some degree, however, he is a fit capable man, who loves physical work and still plays some sport twenty years later.

He has been living consciously for seventeen years now, and has attuned to many healing modalities, personal growth courses, lots of Qigong, Yoga and breathwork. Lived in many communities, as well as living close to nature by himself.

He has healed several of his own teeth and removed a lump from his right testicle with using only energy. He has used alchemy and quantum energy in many other ways to create a healthy life.

Jacob offers guidance and mentoring on many levels, Assisting you to know life happens for us. In his intuitive energy healing he uses sound, tones and light language, all with his voice, quantum energy and alchemy. He also creates hand drawn sacred art, which goes beyond the conscious mind into a deep soul resonance. Jacob tunes into your energy field and sees what needs attention. He can remove deep trauma and activate your soul essence. He has facilitated Qigong, dance, mentoring, meditation, healing and nature workshops to groups and one on one. He is an international best seller multi-author and has chapters in four books in total. Jacob has had his own radio shows, done videos and has a current podcast show. He also does a lot of energy work with mother earth - the land and her waters - healing and harmonizing the planet.

Jacob is a multi-dimensional being who is very grounded and is here to be of high service, fulfilling his purpose and missions in this life. And through this embodiment, he is here to assist those who are willing to do the deep work to be their own master. Empowered and self expressive. Walking Earth is a Soul's walk, while loving and honouring our temple - the human body.

Jacob loves to live, and lives to love.

CORE Coaching

CORE Coaching is simply that - it speaks to the core. Core issues, traumas, wounds, beliefs and so on. It also enhances Core values, principles, relationships, essence, truth and so on.

We get to the core of things and therefore harmonise and bring fulfillment in a vast area of your life with one core focus.

I offer a vast ray of coaching and guidance, which is reflective of where you are on your journey of evolution and what it is you require assistance with. My assistance comes from modalities I am attuned in, multiple courses I have attended, along with life experiences and infused with my own personal healing journey.

I intuitively see what is asking to be looked at for your highest good. Sometimes, this means not the obvious, as there can be hidden energies that require attention first.

I am very invitational, as my guidance is about Self Empowerment. I offer ways of working with the energetics, clearing traumas and working with you. I also give you take away tools for you to use at home.

I love these sessions, because they are so relatable, yet totally unique. Even with the same person, each session can be so different. You can go on such a transformational journey that is so life changing. And it brings me such joy, seeing you shine and stand in your power.

New Earth Remembrance Codes - Art

The more detailed codes can take many hours just to draw. I also sit with them as part of bringing through the frequency they emanate, so their full expression can be created over a full day, many days, a week or even longer.

-( I have drawn hundreds of these )-

These codes, transmissions and activations help humanity embody the New Earth 5D and beyond consciousness.

I can share with you about each one, which I'm happy to do. However, they will connect with each person in their own unique resonance. So it can be more empowering and beneficial for you to decipher them and get what is there for you to receive.

As well as being transmissions and/or activations, they can assist with moving through trauma held in the body in an instance.

Earth's Leylines, Dragonlines & Songlines

I have been called more and more to walk with Gaia. To be with her, healing the land and her waters. I can be somewhere for a few minutes, an hour or two, a day, week and even walk for several weeks. It is a real heart calling for me and I feel so blessed, as I also receive so much being of service in this way. I am evolving and remembering more each time, as I awaken this deep connection and remembrance of why I am here in this life.

I often go alone, as I am called to many sites. However, I also love being with others, as we all bring our unique codes to share and together we amplify the field incredibly so.

*Many beings, seen and unseen, walk and work with me.
I am full of loving gratitude for this.*

*You can contact me for any enquiries, questions and more information.
