

SL - Balding man as GQ's no1?

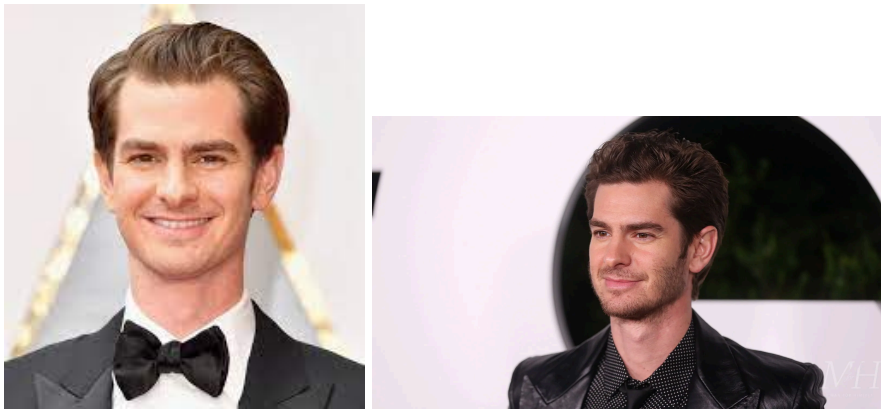

Baldness is a choice

60% of men show signs of going bald by the age of 25 it can be reversed

80% of men suffer from baldness that could have been treated

People are keeping their hair thick and young into their 40s

Just look at Andrew (GQ's no1 sexiest man)

In the image to the left, you can see signs of balding

On the image to the right, taken two years later...

No sign

The layman's immediate thought would be a hair transplant

But

You'd be wrong

You see Andrew is one of our clients

He went from the widows peak of an old man to the fresh clean hairline of a man 20 years younger

There's a simple formula that everyone can use to keep their hair

SL- Balding already?

Remember walking out of the house not having a care in the world about how your hair looked

Or maybe you spent hours sculpting your head of hair to any style you wanted before going out

But now

You look in the mirror for hours trying to cover up the bald spots

You look up new hairstyles that MIGHT hide your balding

You wear hats out in public

You are worried to go on dates because all of your pictures show you sporting a nice clean crisp hairline

Women's no1 sign of an aging man is a blading head

The 5th most attractive thing a woman finds in a man is their head of hair (according to a 2023 Vogue poll)

Imagine being able to go back to those days when you knew you could walk out and not worry about your hair

Just rinse, dry it, then out the door

Imagine confidently going on a date not worrying about if your bald spots are showing

Imagine only wearing a hat when you want to, not when you feel like you need to

There is a way to the thick hair of a 20 year old

A way to look 10 years younger

You can reclaim your hair

SL- Hair got me... my wife

I'd go out with my friends and people would look at me wondering why I was hanging out with people 10 years younger than me.

I still remember the stares and when they'd be brave enough to ask how old I was, shock and horror followed with a quick glance at my fading hairline.

It destroyed me, night after night approaching women and them being disgusted by a 40-year-old hitting on young 20-something-year-olds.

I was only 26

And it destroyed my confidence being rejected night after night.

Being looked at as a creep night after night.

Then a friend of mine, Joe, told me to get a hair transplant, I dismissed it and put it to the back of my mind

Until finally, one night on MY BIRTHDAY, I got the same treatment, the same look of disgust followed by a glance at my hairline

I went home holding back tears the whole way home, on the train, on the bus even as I got into my bedroom I was filled with anger, sadness and hopelessness.

Something had to change

I started to research hair transplants.

AND BANG I started seeing the price tags $6000, $10000, $15000

I couldn't afford this!!!

I began to wonder if this would be my life if I'd keep getting rejected by all the women I was attracted to.

I doom-scrolled through some online forums hoping to find a cheaper option

Then I sat up

Confused about what I was looking at

Someone was claiming to have grown their hair back using natural products and it had cost them a fraction of what a hair transplant would've cost while taking about the same amount of time.

I couldn't believe it

His before and after pictures.

The hair was thicker and fuller than anyone who had used hair transplants

So naturally I did some stalking, hoping he had revealed his secret somewhere

And he had...

It took less than 5 minutes to use.

And in less than 6 months, his hair looked like it belong to a 20-year-old

I sat back in my old rickety chair and looked around in disbelief

I put a rush order on all the products he had used

And soon...

Soon after the 6-month mark, I was filled with confidence

I went out with the usual crowd and instinctively expected people to be looking at me and my hair.

They didn't

I approached a gorgeous woman at the bar

I expected her to dismiss me (she was way out of my league)

But she didn't

We got talking

Hours went by and she said something I'll never forget

“ I love your hair”

So naturally

One thing led to another and a year later I proposed and we are still married to this day

When I tell my wife that it was my hair that got her, she denies it and says she would've liked me either way

But you and I know the truth...

Hims is a company filled with stories like these.

Men reclaiming their hair and rediscovering their life

It is my birthday weekend so as an FU to male baldness

For the next 48 hours

You can lock in your lifetime price of only $30 a month
