

DEEPTI KHURANA

Deepti Khurana is a travel enthusiast and hails from Rohtak. She is from the batch of 2006 in Direction Specialisation from Film and Television Institute of India, Pune. Her diploma film “Rizwan” went to some of the prestigious international festivals and has won many awards as well. Prior to that she graduated in Journalism and Mass Communication from BRAC, Delhi University in 2003 and then pursued her Post graduation in same field from GJU, Hlsar. She taught for a year in Tecnia, IP University. She has worked with All India Radio as a Newsreader and presenter in various radio channels for three years. After finishing the filmmaking course from Pune she shifted to Mumbai and worked there for almost two years. She is working in a film school at SUPVA, Rohtak as well as freelancing with Daydreamer Film Company. She loves writing and reading and is currently oscillating between academia and filmmaking.

She can be reached at dkhurana6@gmail.com