Project Theme

The theme of this project is The Tempuras' Journal of Guild TEMPUS!

Credit to Ameruu: Permission was granted to repost her journal images here

Filled with the written musings of Tempuras and small, cute doodles, we hope to capture the Tempuras' thoughts of the boys' various streams across the year as a review of their activities, and to let them know how we've followed their journey all this time!

Project Outline

This project will be split into 3 sections:

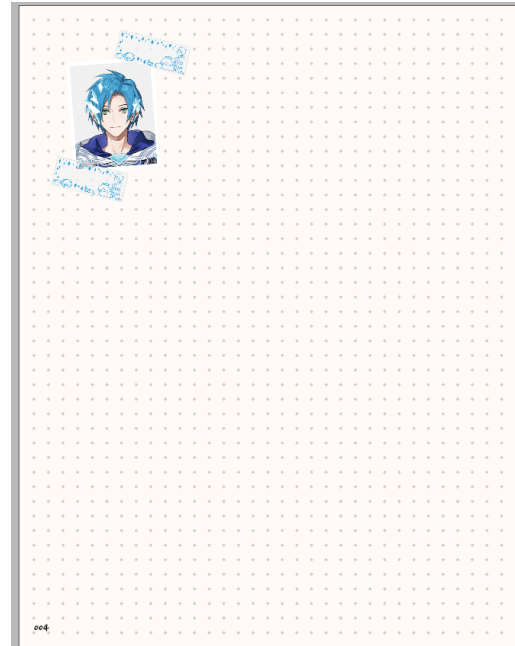

About the Boys: Tempura Observations

Overview

An “about” section for the HQ boys! The twist—it’s us writing their profile pages! We’re looking to make this hilariously memey as we can while remaining as accurate as possible in terms of what they have said or revealed about themselves. The goal is to get a laugh out of the boys as they read their pages!

Details

- Each boy will have one page with their “ID Photo.”
- We will be filling each boy’s page with one-sentence observations about, or short quotations from them.
- Visually, it will be something along the lines of a High School yearbook, or a wedding guestbook! We’ll also be adding sticker art for visual interest/decoration.
- Due to space constraints, we will be using a voting system to decide which submissions will be included.

Participation - DEADLINE JUNE 30

There are two ways you can participate:

1. You may submit a phrase or HQ member quote (There are two types of submissions; please see the below guidelines!). Note that we will not be adding credits.
 - a. There is no submission limit.
2. You may vote on any phrase or quote that you think should be included!
 - a. Votes can be cast using the green check mark emoji: ✅
 - b. If you think an entry may be viewed negatively or is inaccurate for any reason, you can react with an X emoji: ❌
 - c. There is no vote limit.

We will be opening four threads in the #book-wips channel, one for each boy. To submit or vote, please check the relevant thread (go to the channel and tap the hashtag+speech bubble symbol to find threads). Please do not discuss submissions in these threads. Threads will be reserved for submissions and votes only. You can chat about entries in the #book-wips channel directly.

- If you notice any problematic submissions, please DM one of the project team members.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- You may submit TWO types of phrases:

1. Observations of what the boy has said or revealed about themselves. E.g.:
 - a. Altare is sometimes a snail.
 - b. Magni lives with Lord Chungus and 2 kittens.
2. Direct quotes from the boys. E.g.:
 - a. “Will you still love me if I were a worm?” – Regis Altare
 - b. “Hello, I’m Vesper Noir, resident scholar of the adventure guild Tempus and a member of Holostars English.” – Vesper Noir

- Submissions may ONLY be what the boy has said about themselves, or said directly. No personal observations will be included, nor will any credits be added.
- If you’re submitting something that one boy has said about or to another, please place the quote into the thread of the SUBJECT, not the speaker.
 - E.g.: [“Altare is cracked.” -Vesper Noir] <- This would go into Altare’s thread, not Vesper’s.
- If you’re unsure about a submission, feel free to drop a query in the #book-wips channel (NOT the threads).

The Journal (OPEN Feb 25)

Important Documents

The boys have done tons of streams over the year! Unfortunately, we can’t cover every single one of them, so here is how we’ll be handling the journal.

For each month, we will have 24 Journal Entry Slots. Each boy will have 5 slots for their solo streams, and 4 slots will be dedicated to Collab Streams. Anyone can apply for a journal entry slot, artist or writer.* You will then have to write or illustrate about half a page’s worth of content for the journal entry. Examples have been provided in the documents linked above.

*We will be aiming for a balanced mix of artist and writer submissions for each member during each month, however if you feel strongly about a particular stream please let us know.

Application Restrictions

1. One person may only apply for a total of 4 journal entries across all the phases.

- a. You may only apply for 2 journal entries every Application Phase.
2. There are 5 categories you can apply for: Altare, Magni, Axel, Vesper, and Collabs.
 - a. A stream counts as a Collab if there are 2 or more HQ boys involved in the stream. If it's 1 HQ boy plus any number of other Holopro members (including Vanguard), it will count as a Solo stream. Impromptu collabs (another HQ boy hopping in halfway to play the same game, not just call-ins) are counted as Collabs, but will only be accepted if they become memorable streams.
 - b. You may only have one accepted journal entry for each category. You can apply for the same HQ boy again if your previous applications weren't accepted.
3. Though we don't encourage it, each stream may only have a max of 2 Journal Entries dedicated to it. We will encourage people to pick other streams unless it's an important stream.
4. We will accept streams that include a VTuber or streamer that is not part of Hololive Productions, but we will not allow any direct mention of said VTuber or streamer. Please reference them indirectly.
 - a. Instead of writing "Axel told a lot of funny highschool stories to RPR who malded super hard.", you could write "Axel told a lot of funny highschool stories to a friend on stream who malded super hard."
5. Note: Participant comments will not be a part of submissions for this project, so if you'd like to send an additional anniversary congratulations wish to the boys, please use the Guest Book.

Artists

1. PNG only, transparent background, 300 DPI. Minimum Sizes listed in Art Examples.
 - a. If you cannot create transparent PNGs, submit a PSD file with layers intact instead.
 - b. Recommended to work in CMYK color profile for more color accuracy when printing, but it is not required to submit the final file in CMYK format. (PNGs will automatically export as RGB color mode anyway)
2. Submit your art using the following filename format:
MMDDYYYY_Member_Artist_##.png
(Date) (or Collab)
Ex. 01242023_Axel_ArtistA_01.png
10172022_Collab_ArtistB_01.psd
3. Please do not include direct copyright infringing artwork in your art! I.e. no Pikachu, no exact copy of monsters, etc.

Writers (1500 Character Limit)

You are required to submit your work in a Google Document using the templates provided in the Writing Reference/Template. Please look over the document carefully and follow the instructions.

Guest Book (CLOSES June 18)

Like the other projects, there will be a Google Form Guest Book open to the public for comments and additional illustrations. You can go wild for the illustrations, from small doodles to full page illustrations. We highly encourage not waiting until the end of the form open period to submit any art/messages as to lighten the load on the organizers towards the end stretch! Be sure to spread the word!

Physical Book Production

As stated before, this project is intended to be a physical book that will be delivered to the boys at some point! However, based on past Holopro fan projects, we're aware that the boys are not likely to receive the book for months. Thus, we've opted to prioritize covering the most amount of streams in the year, hence our tight deadlines in July.

Physical book production will not occur until AFTER their anniversary passes. At that point, we will crowdsource funds for the book's production. More details will be forthcoming as we get closer to the anniversary date, when details about the book's production have been finalized.
