

PTA Executive Board:

Our current Granger PTA Board will all be moving on to high school next year and we are looking for some awesome parents to fill the void and lead our PTA next year. If you are interested, or even just want to learn more, please reach out to Mr. Davenport and he will be happy to answer any questions you might have.

Granger writers:

How are your Young Author's entries going?

Is your writing beautiful and flowing?

If your creativity is low

To the LMC you can go

Where previous years' winners are showing

-See Ms. Axt or your ELA teacher if you have any questions! Write on!

Basketball:

The 7A girls lost a heartbreaker on the road at Kennedy last night. Leading the way was Sarah Pathan with 4 points and Raksha Vivekanand, Bri Brown, and Meera Srivason each chipped 2 points apiece. Zhri Gates played some smothering defense to help keep the game close, and Gabby Hernandez did a good job rebounding. Our next game is at Gregory on Wednesday. Go Grizzlies!

Robotics Club:

The Granger Robotics Club had an exciting weekend competing in their final tournament of the season on Saturday. All Granger teams worked hard to problem solve and maneuver in the demanding Robotics Skills Challenge. Granger Team C Of Thanuj Kumar, Connor Lobos, Aaryan Ramamuni, Suchet Samarth, Aayush Shah, and Sushanth Shanmugam drove their robot with skill and speed to earn the top spot of Robotics Skills Champion. In addition to their skillful driving the team earned the Excellence Award as the top all around team. The Granger Girl Power team of Anvita Gupta, Devika Kalavagunta, Elina Mittal, Ashwina Sharma, Anushri Srivastava, and Sanjana Sukumar persisted through the entire season keeping a detailed Engineering Notebook while impressing the judges in having the most effective and efficient design process to earn the Design Award.

Congratulations to all Granger Robotics Club members, your coaches are proud of your accomplishments and all of the hard work you put into the VEX Spin Up season. Be ready for a short celebration at our final meeting on Thursday, February 16th.
