

Certification Rubric

Cans

	Bronze	Silver	Gold	Super Green
Cans	House (or house partnership) attempted to put out recycling bins for can collection.	House (or house partnership) documented that they recycled 2,000+ cans.	House (or house partnership) documented that they recycled 3,000+ cans.	House (or house partnership) documented that they recycled the most cans of all houses in Greek Life.

Clothes

	Bronze	Silver	Gold	Super Green
Clothes	House has a system that makes it easier for members to swap and borrow clothes from one another (groupme, chat of some sort, club, etc.)	House documented that their members attended clothes swaps. Examples include but are not limited to Fair Fashion Swaps and visiting Swap Shop.	House has hosted their own clothing swap.	House hosted a public clothing swap with more than 50 attendants. House went above and beyond to show their commitment to stopping fast fashion.

Community - Equity, connectivity, and education

	Bronze	Silver	Gold	Super Green
Coordinator participation	House has a registered coordinator.	House coordinator attends all coordinator meetings.	House coordinator attends coordinator meetings and completes assignments in a timely fashion.	House coordinator attends coordinator meetings, completes assignments in a timely fashion, and develops curriculum and changes that are specifically tailored to their members.
Membership	Chapter includes more than one racial and/or ethnic identity	Chapter includes more than one racial and/or ethnic identity. Chapter implements DEI education.	Chapter includes more than one racial and/or ethnic identity. Chapter implements DEI education. Chapter has guest speakers talk about life perspectives, experience, or expertise that is different from the majority membership perspective, experience, and expertise.	Chapter includes more than one racial and/or ethnic identity. Chapter implements DEI education. Chapter has guest speakers talk about life perspectives, experience, or expertise that is different from the majority membership perspective, experience, and expertise. Chapter co-hosted a project or event with an organization whose primary membership represents a culture or race different from their own chapter's majority membership.
Sustainability Education	Your	Your	Your	Your

	coordinator/committee has spoken to your chapter at a chapter meeting at least once this semester.	coordinator/committee has spoken to your chapter at a chapter meeting twice this semester	coordinator/committee has spoken to your chapter at a chapter meeting twice this semester. Your coordinator/committee has sent your chapter additional resources, outside reading, and/or news articles regarding sustainability.	coordinator/committee has spoken to your chapter at a chapter meeting twice this semester. Your coordinator/committee has sent your chapter additional resources, outside reading, and/or news articles regarding sustainability. Your coordinator/committee has created a forum for regular/consistent education and/or dialogue and/or anonymous question asking in regards to sustainability.
Philanthropy	Chapter hosted a philanthropy event this calendar year	Chapter hosted a philanthropy event related to an environmental justice issue this calendar year	Chapter hosted a philanthropy event related to an environmental justice issue specifically affecting the Athens community this calendar year	Chapter hosted a philanthropy event related to an environmental justice issue specifically affecting the Athens community this calendar year, and this event is documented to happen again next year
Campus Involvement	Members are participants in programs outside of Greek Life that are related to sustainability (environmental preservation, addressing	Members have increased the membership and participation in a sustainability program outside of greek life (helped to grow the	Chapter executive board showed support for participation in sustainability programs outside of greek life through offering “points”	Chapter has an explicit or formal partnership with a local organization related to sustainability, on or off campus.

	food insecurity, improving education, etc)	organization)	to attend said event.
Sustainability Certificate	Chapter has at least one member working towards the UGA Sustainability Certificate	5% of the Chapter is working towards the UGA Sustainability Certificate	10% of the Chapter is working towards the UGA Sustainability Certificate	15% of the chapter is working towards the sustainability certificate or house with the highest percentage of Chapter members working towards the UGA Sustainability Certificate

House - Committing to excellence in sustainability in our physical spaces

	Bronze	Silver	Gold	Super Green
Intentional Landscaping	House has plans to plant native or edible plants and understands the importance of intentional landscaping	House has existing native or edible plants in their landscaping.	House installed new native or edible plants to their landscaping this calendar year	House coordinator knows the benefits of these native or edible plants and has educated the chapter about them House members have volunteered with Concrete Jungle, Campus Kitchen, or similar food security organizations this semester.

House Walk through required regardless	House completed a “walk through” this academic year	House completed a “walk through” this academic year	House completed a “walk through” this academic year	House completed a “walk through” this academic year
Responsible Waste Disposal	House has recycling bins	House has recycling bins that are clearly paired and labeled with trash bins to reduce contamination	House has recycling, compost, and trash	House has recycling, compost, trash, and a system for recycling hard to recycle items (film, styrofoam, ect)
Water Conservation Efforts/Appliances	House has educated chapter about the importance of water conservation	House has made efforts towards having all low-flow plumbing fixtures (toilets, shower heads, faucets/aerators) House has educated chapter about the importance of water conservation	House has all low-flow plumbing fixtures (toilets, shower heads, faucets/aerators) House has educated chapter about the importance of water conservation	House has all low-flow plumbing fixtures (toilets, shower heads, faucets/aerators) House has educated chapter about the importance of water conservation House is making intentional lifestyle changes to reduce water consumption. (meatless Mondays, rain barrel installation, etc.)
LED Bulbs	House has educated chapter on the importance of energy conservation	House has made efforts towards installing LED Light Bulbs	House has over 50% LED Light bulbs	House has 100% LED Light Bulbs

		House has educated chapter on the importance of energy conservation	House has educated chapter on the importance of energy conservation	House has educated chapter on the importance of energy conservation
--	--	---	---	---