

Roman Slavery: Texts and Context

Roberta Stewart

Dartmouth College

The course selects representative texts from the Roman slave society (Republic and Empire) and explores methodologies for identifying and interpreting the evidence for the history of slave experience. Texts include Cato, On Agriculture (De Agri Cultura); Plautus, Persian; Cicero, Letters to Tiro; Apuleius, Met. 1-3.