Nasir al-Din Tusi

Look up Tusi in the index of books. Also astronomers.

Google search helped me understand who he was and what happened to him to make him not like the Mongols. A couple reliable websites give information on his background—he was a leading scholar, scientist, and mathematician who witnessed the Mongol invasion of Baghdad and the fall of the ‘Abbasid caliphate (talk to the person researching the Caliph Al-Musta’sim). This info can work for both sides!
