

Today's wedding inspiration is a tribute to edgy, offbeat and trendy couples all across the globe that are powering through wedding plans despite the coronavirus pandemic. Whether you're making many changes to say 'I do' like originally planned or changing it all up completely, here's to you being true to yourselves through thick + thin!

Casi Yost of Casi Yost Photography shares her rad vision behind the inspiration: This styled shoot highlights two distinct features. The first is tailored for the young, offbeat trendy couple that likes to do things their own way. The second is it's specifically designed to highlight how beautiful a COVID-compliant wedding can be!
