

Q1 Patterns of Power Document

aka POP DOC

Day 1	Notice things about the excerpt
Day 2	Compare and contrast two sentences
Day 3	Imitate with table group, partner, or individually
Day 4	Padlet Day - a different person shares each week. Help each other!

WEEK 1 - 8/19

Lesson 4.1 Focus Phrase: "My sentences have a subject."

Day 1	* two sentences * Second sentence goes deeper into first idea with certain moments * Second sentence has three specific places * 3 places were separated by commas
Day 2	Both sentences cover the same themes, but in different forms. For example, the first one talks about the river, ocean and forest. And the second one mainly talks about school.
Day 3	You walk the road you've always known. The restaurants, the activities, the sounds of the chatter belong to you.
Day 4	Padlet Day - whose turn is it? Group double-check and help!

WEEK 2 - 8/26

Lesson Focus Phrase:

Day 1	The familiar. You walk the land you've always known. The river, the ocean, the deep forest belong to you.
Day 2	The first sentence covers what belongs to the reader, while the second sentence still covers the familiar, but at the end it says bone chilling instead of it belongs to you.
Day 3	The familiar. You walk the sidewalks you've always known, the restaurants, the whole city belong to you.
Day 4	Padlet Day - whose turn is it? Group double-check and help!

WEEK 3 - 9/2

Lesson Focus Phrase:

Day 1	The first sentence has a subject and a verb, then the second one only has a subject.

Day 2	These two sentences are alike because they both have the same three dramatic sentence fragments. They are different because although they have the same dramatic sentence fragments, the second sentence has them on a different subject.
Day 3	Olivia gasped. No phone. No going out. Grounded.
Day 4	Padlet Day - whose turn is it? Group d,o

WEEK 4 - 9/9

Lesson Focus Phrase:

"Day 1	The first thing I notice about this sentence is that there is a comma, the second is it says the people called Finn names that are most likely mean. The third is there is only one sentence.
Day 2	Both of the sentences start with "the people." The bottom sentence is talking about liking something, when the top is talking mostly negative about Finn's "nicknames'.

WEEK 5 - 9/16

Lesson Focus Phrase:

Day 1
Day 2	A difference between these sentences is one of them is about a fictional character, and one is about real life, America. A similarity is that both are only one sentence and have one comma and are in the same kind of format.
Day 3
Day 4	Padlet Day - whose turn is it? Group double-check and help!

WEEK 6 - 9/23

Lesson Focus Phrase:

Day 1	One thing I notice is that the sentence is only one sentence and there is 1 comma. Also there is a fanboys word too.
-------	---

Day 2	They are alike because they both have FANBOYS in them. They are different because they are talking about different creatures, one talking about dogs and one talking about a human
Day 3	The lion's roar was deafening, and I could tell that they were not messing around.
Day 4	Padlet Day - whose turn is it? Group double-check and help!

WEEK 8 - 10/7

Lesson Focus Phrase: I use compound sentences to join ideas.

Day 1	I notice that the sentence is only one sentence, but it is long and has two commas. I also noticed that the sentence mainly revolved around pizza.
Day 2	They are similar because they both have similar formats and one comma. They are different because the first sentence is talking descriptively about pizza, and the second is talking descriptively about bad smells and Axe spray
Day 3	Gerold opened the door to the school bathroom, and the nasty stench of sweaty boys and other stuff arose immediately, but he still went anyway.
Day 4	Padlet Day - whose turn is it? Group double-check and help!

WEEK 9 - 10/14

Lesson Focus Phrase: I join sentences with a comma and a for.

Day 1	I notice that this sentence has three commas and it is a long sentence. I also notice that the narrator is in first person.
Day 2	A difference between these sentences is the first one has two commas, while the second sentence has one. A similarity I notice is they both have FANBOYS words in both of them.
Day 3	I had always avoided that side of the locker room, for it was filled with

	Axe Body Spray, and middle schoolers who didn't put on deodorant.
