

Bear Scare

Once upon a time; there was a family with three children. They were an ordinary family and they didn't have many cares. One day the the oldest of the children, Puck was outside and he was riding his bike to the woods nearby because he wanted to play hide and seek with his brothers in the woods. Then just as he was getting to the center of the woods, he saw a bear! At first he thought that he was just imagining it but then, the bear decided to roar and it scared him so well that he almost fell over!

Puck was nine years old and he knew what to do if he encountered a bear. First he talked in soothing tones as he backed off and then the bear did something he totally did not expect! The bear said,"Hey, why are you backing off?" This scared puck so much that he actually did fall over this time!

The bear saw that he had scared puck again. The bear felt bad for him. Then the bear said,"Don't be scared; I didn't mean to scare you. My name is Ralph." Puck, now seeing that the bear wasn't as harmful as he looked said,"will you not eat me? Then Ralph said," No, I just eat salmon, berries, and honey."

"Ok," said Puck, "but have you seen my brothers?" Then Ralph said," No, but I can help you look for them." "Great," said Puck. So they went through the forest yelling "Bobby," which was the middle brother and "Daniel," wich was the younger brother. Soon they heard Bobby yell back and they came into a clearing where he was. As soon as they came into that clearing they saw Bobby scream! Then Puck quickly said," It's ok Bobby, this bear is a nice bear."

Just then Daniel ran into the clearing and screamed to! Puck had to tell Daniel what he had told Bobby before he calmed down. The boys were not as scared as before, but they still kept their distance. When Puck suggested they all play hide and seek including Ralph, they were more than happy to oblige as to keep their distance.

They had been playing for a while when their mother came to take them home to lunch. When Puck asked if he could take the bear home and showed her Ralph she fainted. When she was finally revived he said,"(getting tired of saying it) this bear is so nice he will not hurt you." Then Ralph said," yeah I won't hurt anybody." Their mother was so shocked that the bear could speak that she almost fainted again! It took a while of soothing before she could speak again. As soon as she did she said,"Well, ok, if you don't let him get into trouble. Mind you the whole reason I am letting you take him home is because it is not every day that one gets a talking bear!

As they were going home the bear entertained them telling jokes. On the way home someone they drove past saw the bear through the window and their car slid off the road! The family stopped and Puck had to sooth once again!

After that incident they came home and Puck was glad that there could be no more people in their family that didn't know about the bear. Wait, then he remembered his dad...

His dad came in and said," I'm ho-aaaah! a bear!

THE END
