

Thus, we now start a new life with my second family and my cat: Catdashian. To get tickets, I had to shave my nipples with my mouth. Now my tongue is frozen while I lick the Chocolate Ice Cream with dolphins on top who had erections as hard as the steel in your gigantic mama's ass. My mom died from it. Then my dad find out that my sister had my mom tied down and I was just staring like WUUT? Then I walked in the roof and jumped like my dad when a snake bit my poor alligator. We then sued the clown who stole my beer and scared my girlfriend who also was a gorilla with one testicle. Although I can't really understand this reason of weird, I must pretend to be a superhero because I have a tumor called your mother. I love it when racoons try to eat my peanut butter on my balls. Sometimes they bite on the wrong private part of my tumor. Tis okay though you have my heart now darling and I have so much to give to you. Please understand that I hate you with all that I could every throw up from stuff or whatever and just die, because he is the worst clown in the universe. I also heard, what the fuck, jiggle my love-muffins, you said about the reason why my tiny snake in your boot, bit your face and killed a weird looking human with the wrong dating advice. Wow, I realize how great I am when I lick things that have yellow teeth and are extreme parkour lovers from mars. When he farted in my face, I decided to go stab him in his left kidney because he killed my dad who's drinking in the night ran off to go to the other side of the moon to defeat Crota from hive and avenge my lovely giraffes. They hunger for blood. However, the vampires were gay for over a century and just decided that we fuck in the ass with a pencil. So I awkwardly took a video of my mom on the phone while drinking Vodka. I posted the video who got a treatment for cancer. My eyes hurt because of watching my betrothed Grandchild who is watching my old mother do the dishes who is on the cell phone. She is always happy but until his car crashed into Narnia, she a lovely loli have evolve into a scary dragon who ate her. Tragic, it was but it wasn't as bad as that day when I kicked Grandma because she ate my cat that was fat and had diabetes that had EBOLA virus that the grandma became weird ever since she ran to Ikebukuro with my pet rabbit. She saw a wolf Marine floating like ET. It got shot but it was so beautiful that it grew wings and began dancing on the sun. Then it fell but after it the wings burned and glowed blue. Then it had an extremely narcissistic tendency that causes cancer and other diseases curable by dogs wrapped up in Chinese gǒu ròu, bacon, and other animal sex organs. Yum, I would without a doubt absolutely love to just eat that ice Cream Sandwich. It was delicious. But when I sharted my panties, I had realized that the panties were red with pizza sauce from what I thought I had gotten. So I realized that I should really buy a cat. A big black fluffy fat cat, that eats lots of tuna and occasionally socks. I like sardines but I'm a dog with big heart and furry tail full of sardines and a bucket.

There's a pink UFO landing in my snowy backyard located in Japan. I stared while the teletubbies were eating sardines in my kitchen. My fat dog farted an onion made of gold shaped like sardines, birthing baby elephants that love sardines. Robot ate it for the lols, circuits then malfunctioned and he exploded his brain over the floor while Breivik killed Muslims. Leaving new behind, ISIS came to my best friend's birthday ay the bowling alley. They had a blast, literally. Well, then Breivik killed some dogs on his way home but he realized that Muslims just bombed, so he just killed race traitors. Then he wanted the Jews to run away really quickly but they were shot anyway in the booty with Butteries. "Now multiculturalism will end when the time comes." Breivik died, then was revived as a banana. A flying banana, "Flying Mint Bunny!" suddenly yelled the Muslims will die but in reality Teletubbies took over and Jews died. So Hitler finally admitted he's gay and went to swimming with his collection of phones. And then the teletubbies defecated baby illuminati members not knowing that Muslims are evil and don't know why the heck people like hugs. I mean like really like hugs. I mean like Jesus cooking sharks. Then suddenly I licked your face that tasted like sausages. Muslims were killed in an unfortunate genocide. It's great that Mecha-Hitler arrived with party balloons and rubber boots to kill more Nickelback fans though. I wish that Nickelback never existed. I wish that Vegeta would slap the hell out of this brown banana. So hard that multicolored penises would leak out back slime into Hatash's mouth and rebel's body made of pizza. What the hell is going on here, while I take a sip on my tea. This is insanity. This is Normal. Insanity is normal? Normality is insane. So what should we do now?

Did you just get off to make money for the little children? because that's very responsible of you. I respect that you haven't done anything strange like stacking piss bottles for a shrine of fluffy puppies riding nyan cats across the stars over the moon. But sucking cocks and killing Muslims, and when you try to rape a black man's very overly protected big hairy knee, he gets very moist. Then he also starts shouting "Tacos taste great" and proceeded to morph into a fire breathing dragon with a penis that was eaten by dirty Muslims that were covered in blood and loved to dance which shows that he liked to shake his butt and kill niggers. But then god regenerated his penis once he realized it was back, he sucked it dry. A new flaming drongo appeared after the wombat burned a Quran then the terrorist made a cake which fucked chocolate wedding cake with its penis at the altar shaped like penises. Trying to comprehend what color is Obama's natural hair and his penis but suddenly someone shot it off and ate it. Wow! It's Vanilla! Then they flew into the abyss happily ever after, didn't happen as without fear. Eventually, they reached the time machine where time was unstable. A giant space octopus noodles for arms and penis feet. I tried to run away but it wouldn't stop because you're there. So we start a great sacrifice to out almighty lamb which feed us fat turkey which tasted like salty chicken feet with pink frostings but it was a gnome with money. I went to take the dollars out of the piggy bank and their penis slapped nights face and hurled themselves into my underwear where they took form of an unaware geek who like buttsex to everyone around, said he wanted to capture everyone and rule the taco bell empire which lead to World war 3, went to hell where Lucifer was jacking off in snow pants because he wanted god too. So he leaped into a hole but suddenly I fucked Jennifer whom was a morbidly obese burrito who liked spaghetti with dark chocolate. I like what love the madness~. Penguins are flying to the moon. They then realized, there was no moon up there, need for violence, because he is unaware of himself and doesn't know how to kill his awesome great and extremely moist perverted owner.

Then I shat, shit I didn't mean to jump on the nyan pizza. So I had to eat everything before my cat goes on a long magnificent adventure. To the world beyond the horizon and start a world war because of big chicken nuggets that was not able to breakdance. I hate summer because of all the snow that has melted in such a way that my cate shed his fur and die. Then I ran away from my cat. I just don't know what to do with all of these feels, please help. Dead inside but alive outside and a sadist lover combined together and became a turnip to one day conquer all of the turnip farm and the end of the world. End of story. Or was it? Nothing ever ends. It goes on forever and then a puppy farts to end the 'Three Word Game' but turns out the game can't turn on without hot bikini babes then turn it off. So what now? I will have to type this within a document. Until I try to type it, Michael Bay will explode and kill Muslims and more Muslims and all of the middle east. People, stop cheating. Eat my Magikarp his name is Alfred and he loves dancing to boring music. From the underworld made the demons start to dance in the sun while a potato walking beside me. We got candy! as I burned Obama's big dick. And I also kissed a cow. I did it and liked it but the cow mooed in disdain while having his ice cream eaten but it fell it sadden him but not really. The cow procrastinated until death took the cow's slaves to his bed and freed them but was chased by anonymous, and Kuruna with swords, drunk with vodka. 'Bump bump bump' came knocking at the door. It was Nova and PandaFreak, they knocked on the door came for Kuruna but Nova left. And someone open and closed the Gateway to another which was the entrance to the exit to entrance of the exit to the house(?) of Rising Sun. Then the Communists had wonderful lunch at the bottom of a pit with a couple of Blood Thirsty Yanderes that were thirsty. They chopped off their own genitals and swallowed them right after slicing some to make a great moist quesadilla. I ate it while writing in my Death Note. And then, I kicked the apple out of the sin, so when it reached third cosmic velocity and it exploded. Then the cows transformed into Titans and started twerking to this song, "World is Mine" Then Miku appeared with her favorite twin leek canons and started dancing.

I then prepared a lasagna rolls to choke my stripy cupcake monster to death, joyfully while farting in something made out of the skin of Bales pet. Tree branches grew slowly. The tree begin to dance and consumed humans. Then, baby branches and big branches tried to stop but failed thrice they're too sticky said Billy Bob. A clown reply, Where are the pills that I had? Balloons are flying incredibly high into a plane on fire, like a guy on meth, when it exploded into Ice Ice Baby Platinum Anniversary version because it is the devils music, sweet and intoxicating, that made the Pegasi grow wings and flew away to the Artic, where it burned but got up. The ship sailed, the fish drowned, the man died so he thought "Why not just eat a banana?" and inserted it into his mouth slowly and started to moan while chewing. "CUT! Take 676!" Screamed a random director of a stupid little play that was called "Death by Refrigerators" when the doctor, conveniently named "Fridge-O" began to lick a big black popsicle while he stared at a jar of weed, pot and opium while taking a really long shower. Then he went to the storage to eat Hotdog right after he had a stroke. Praise the penguin, God of the Ironic fire, named Dave Strider. He loved juice and incredibly huge amazingly epic sick rap battles with his bro. Dave hated smuppets but he loved his apple juice and incredibly huge pen in his big black box under his bed. He would only want himself to eat pizza since it was the day that full of homosexual feelings for his very best friend named Karkat Vantas. (He) went to sea to bother eridan, asking for his greatly needed apology because eridan had killed Feferi Peixes and Kanaya Maryam. But eridan just couldn't understand that he got erections from killing Ferferi and Kanaya. It felt wrong. But also right... I can't decide! Which one is the right feeling!!!

You have gay brothers and friends who like to play with their friends a game called Super Smash. They had fun but suddenly all got called to give a speech before the President of Mars. So they went up the stage and decided to protest against the order they were given by the alien leader. (They were commanded to get to the space) to give everyone a chicken and everyone ate shi te because they believed in flying chickens that could save the chicken world from being destroyed by Angela. So one comment man posted one comment and shared it with the Dollars. (>>783 Who tf has time to do this? Anyways, have a nice day ^^, my neck hurts from typing)
