Policy Title: Mission Statement Review & Revision Policy

Policy & Procedure Statement:

It is a policy of the Orlando College of Osteopathic Medicine (OCOM), that the board shall review the mission statement each year for both the college and the university. Once full accreditation is achieved, the board shall consider revisions of the mission statements for the COM and/or university to meet the organization's anticipated potential growth and continued development. The board shall incorporate feedback from relevant stakeholders, including, but not limited to, students, faculty, and staff as part of the strategic planning process.

This policy shall be posted at ocom.org/policies.
