

Percent Error

- Used to calculate the accuracy of your measurements
- Percent error= value experimental - value accepted (over) value accepted *100
- Always round for significant figures after each step
- Always limited by the least decimal places

Example:

$$\frac{1.40 - 1.30}{1.30} = \frac{.100}{1.3} = 7.69\%$$