Cornerstone is a joyful learning community located in Southeast D.C. Through a partnership of family, school, and community, Cornerstone provides a Christ-centered, nurturing, and academically robust education forming the children of Washington, D.C. in the habits of faith, love, and learning essential to becoming wise, compassionate, and virtuous leaders who serve others in light of Christ and His Truth.

We are hiring Substitute Teachers for the 2026-2027 school year.

Who You Are

You are a lifelong learner, committed to Jesus, and are highly relational. You use curriculum as a tool to support learning goals that are carefully determined by your knowledge of your students. You view learning as a partnership, seeking input from colleagues, administrators, and families. You seek to understand the unique challenges of an urban educational environment and are able to effectively teach students with a wide array of needs. You have expertise in your subject matter and are committed to continued personal and spiritual growth.

Experience & Education Requirements

Qualified candidates will possess at least 2+ years of higher education and some educational experience. No certification is required.

Substitutes must be available to work on call, often with notification the same morning.

School Culture

Cornerstone staff are lifelong learners, highly relational and consistently collaborative. In our small classes, teachers build relationships and educate each student as a whole person, which includes training them in habits, virtue, and academic success. Our committed faculty, supportive administration, and commitment to family partnership make Cornerstone a place where you can grow and thrive as an educator.
