

Names of students in groups:

Use the Atlantic Magazine of 45 images during the Interwar period. Look through the images as a group and read the descriptions. Organize the images into four separate groups. NOTE: you cannot use “countries” or “SPICE” categories. You may use the table below to organize your categories. For each category, include the following:

- A title for the category
- A description of how that category represents the interwar period
- Add at least 5 images (copy and paste) that fit into that category

Category 1

Category 2

Category 3

Category 4

QUESTIONS: (answer in complete sentences)

1. What specifically did you find most interesting about the images? Which images and why? (address at least 3 different images)

2. Did you find any of the images troubling? Which images? What specifically?

3. Based on the images, what were the two most important developments in the interwar period?
