

Zodya Killer
BUCK3YE BR4NDY Doll

(The camera cuts to Zodya, standing cuntily in a normal, suburban living room.)

Hi, straight!

Are you tired of your life being dry and dull?

Are you missing some much needed chaos to spice things up a bit?

Are you a fucking libtard that hates America?

Well, I have the perfect new best friend for you!

Introducing: BUCK3YE BR4NDY!

BUCK3YE BR4NDY is the premiere robotic friend you need to feel the most important thing that one can have in this cruel, imperialistic world: chaos!

However, to understand BUCK3YE BR4NDY, one must first know the truth behind them!

(The camera fades out to a congressional hall. Numerous dolls representing each state are shown chatting, partaking in hor d'oeuvres, and taking turns ripping Colorado's bong.)

On one fateful day, BUCK3YE BR4NDY, as well as all of the other state dolls, was called into a special hearing regarding the state of the nation. While they were inquiring what was going on, all was suddenly revealed to them when the president stepped into the room.

It was none other than President Bella Del Rey!

“Everyone,” Bella proclaimed. “As many of you all know, I am soon taking a leave from the office in order to return to the Micro’s Drag Race stage. And this time, I need to come in as the most powerful version of myself possible!”

(The state dolls look around, confused and concerned for the president. Colorado takes a fat bong rip out of anxiety.)

“In order to do that, I need to come in with the most energy possible. Therefore, effective immediately, I will be consuming all of your essence in order for me to thrive.”

The states are thoroughly gagged, bitch! As some began to flee, President Bella unhinged their jaws like a snake and soon began to consume the states. As she sucks them in, her statue grows as she becomes many feet taller than she was before!

“YOU WON’T TAKE ME ALIVE, BITCH!”

BUCK3YE BR4NDY begins to pelt the president with buckeye nuts, being able to distract them as they escape.

“I’LL GET YOU ONE DAY, OHIO!!!”

(The camera cuts back to the living room.)

So yeah, I guess it's clear BUCK3YE BR4NDY hates America, right?

(BUCK3YE BR4NDY soon stops an American flag, gets enraged, and begins to decimate it with buckeye nuts violently.)

BUCK3YE BR4NDY: Down with America, up with Cleveland!
