

What is PowerPool

PowerPool manages a DePIN network of Keepers offering “Transaction Execution as a Service”. The protocol empowers AI Agents and enables DeFi automation by providing reliable and cost-effective transaction automation by streamlining the execution process based on AI-generated and predefined triggers. CVP is the native token of the protocol which is used to secure PowerPool's network and vote on decisions affecting the future of the protocol.