

On a magical day a young blue dragon called Regan went on an ADVENTURE!. “Regan dear, time for school” said Mamma cruse “Coming mummy, but wait there's a storm outside ” he bellowed. “That’s alright, just get an umbrella, I’m sure it’s not that bad.” She added. He trotted along the pavement with his umbrella in hand when he saw some lightning and thought to himself it’s not that bad. Then boom! Regan got struck by lightning, his worst nightmare. His Mum came running and broke down in tears “My son got struck by lightning all because of me!”

They rushed Regan to the emergency room and placed him in a hospital bed. He sadly fell into a coma and had some crazy dreams, like this one. Regan was on his way to school and saw a purple leaf, he said “I didn’t know that there was such a thing as a purple leaf” but he kept on walking. Again and again and again he kept on seeing the same purple leaf, he finally got the courage to pick up the leaf and put it in his bag. You are probably thinking you don’t need courage to pick up a leaf but his Mum always told him not to touch or disturb nature because bad things could happen.

After school Reagan raced home at lightning speed, get it anyways back to his dream. But three bullies were after him, He looked back and saw his worst nightmear, it was the three bullies or known as the three musketeers because they would always wear masks. He ran into a pitch black tunnel and heard giggling, He then ran into a wall in the tunnel. He then fell on the ground, he saw three shadows walking toward him. He heard the same noises that he had heard the day he got struck by lightning.He yelled please don't hurt me to the noises and the bullies. He had an idea to slide through the three musketeers and get home as fast as possible. It worked. He slid through them, he ran home through a 25 acre forest. He got home and yelled out "Mum I'm home" then came a voice from the other room "Mum's not here". So he walked to the kitchen to get a snack but then he realized he doesn't have a sibling and that no one was coming round this afternoon.

He raced to the room he heard the voice in, and he saw his... yellow babysitter wowowo "Ummm hi, where is my mum?" he said sadly "she is at work, they had an emergency" "But she will be back at home in approximately 30 minutes." Said girlena, He looked very sad, his face was droopy and his tail was in between his legs like a dog, he looked up and said "What about dad?" "He is at the shops getting a surprise for you" exclaimed girlean.

Reagan immediately felt better, his tail was wagging vigorously and he had a big smile on his face, he said "I'll be up in my room." playing with my dragon trains." He ran up the stairs with his bag in hand and got out the purple leaf and stared at it for at least 5 minutes pondering what he should do with it. He then did what he said. He played with his dragon train until he heard a knock on the door..."It's mum" he cried. He Dashed up to his Mum and yelled "I have a purple leaf!" His Mum mama Cruse looked at him and said "Can I please see it" Regan shot up to his room and got out his leaf from his bag and was bursting with excitement! " I've got it, I've got it" Reagan exclaimed. Mama Cruse looked at it and recognized the leaf and said " You know how I have been working on a time portal, right?” But Regan had no idea what Mama Cruse was talking about...(Beep,beep,beep) Regan woke up from his coma slowly but surely, when he opened his eyes he saw all of his relatives that flew down from Africa, Russia, New Zealand, Colombia and so on.

His Mum came running up to him because one of his relatives from pennsylvania in America yelled “He’s alive!” When mama Cruse saw the poor boy’s face she smiled and apologized for making him walk to school with the awful weather. Regan of course accepted her apology and became a very good father when he was older and never let his children walk to school in a lighting storm!
