

The MicroProfile Working Group drives the evolution and broad adoption of technologies related to the MicroProfile Project. MicroProfile is an open forum that optimizes Enterprise Java for a microservice architecture by innovating across multiple implementations and collaborating on common areas of interest with a goal of standardization.