

Rules

Welcome to the Rules! Please follow them! Failure to do so will have you given warnings and eventual cutting off and blocking depending on the rule!

Hi! I'm Mun Bun! This is a RP Blog for a large collection of muses. I am a full time worker, artist, and writer so please take that into account when interacting.

Onto the rules!

etGloria

- Warning! I am very sporadic in activity, I may vanish for a while. Feel free to message me out of concern after a while but please do not rush me.
- No Sexual NSFW! I am 21+ but I am not comfortable with it. Even though plenty of my muses have sexual themes- actual sex rp is not a thing for me on tumblr. Though Violence and death is fine. Romance is also a perfectly fine territory.
 - No God Modding! This is a no brainer.
- I am Selective! If you wish to try to interact with me you will have to initiate conversation with me. If I follow you back or we are already mutuals there is a higher chance I will rp with you. But if you do not intend to talk to me as a person and solely as a rp partner this may not be a place for you. (all follow backs are from @lesbunnian)
- Shipping is OPEN! As long as the muse has a verse or a timeline where they are an adult feel free to romance them with other adults. Younger muses can only be romanced by other younger muses.
- OPEN TO CROSSOVERS AND OCS! I love crossovers and seeing how two characters would be. Though If I do not know the fandom or the character please be patient with me. And OC's must have an about page for me to interact!

- All RP styles are OPEN! Text Chat? Sure! Book length? Yep! Memes? You betcha! I simply try to match length to my rp partner!
- Communication can be cut whenever! If I am uncomfortable I am allowed to cut ties whenever I please! Same goes for my partner of course.
- I Kin, but they are not me! A lot of my muses I relate heavily too. Some even are very important characters to me, though many are also people I genuinely disagree with. Do not take my muses' words as my own.
- Icebreaker expected! And encouraged! I message blogs who I want to interact with to break the ice and plot. Feel Free to do the same to me! Just be polite to me and it will be okay. If I follow you expect it from the blog @lesbunnian
- Discord only given to mutuals! I don't particularly think I need to explain this.
- Have Fun! After all this is just a fun side hobby for me while I work on my more intense original stuff on Meadow of a Rabbit! Go follow it if you decide to show interest in my original work. But otherwise- thank you for reading!

If you made it this far- Now go to my Muse List! There you can decide who you wish to interact with and you can come at me with an icebreaker!
