August 31, 2024

I, Shelly O. Boyer-Wood, residing in Anchorage, Alaska, hereby object to the Rockville Town Counsel Public Notice of Special Hearing dated, undated. (Hereinafter referred to as "Notice"). This Objection is also provided as Notice to the Attorney General of Utah, of the State of Utah's subdivision of Rockville, Utah failing of due process rights regarding real property ownership.

The Notice is insufficient as it does not provide proper due process notice rights to the South Mesa Lot Owners (hereinafter referred to as "SMLO").

To wit:

1. Notice of Rockville Town Council Public Hearing Rockville Town Hall September 4, 2024 – 6:00 p.m., (undated), addressed to the "Public".

    a. I, as an Owner of parcel number R-1308-S-3, never received nor agreed to receiving legal notice announcements (or any notice regarding my real property located in Rockville, Utah) from the Rockville Town Council, nor any other Rockville, Utah government entity), via e-mail or any other digital conveyance. E-mail addresses change and internet service providers change and file for bankruptcy as well.
    b. The Notice fails to provide a clear purpose for the Special Hearing set for September 4, 2024 at 6:00 p.m, a. The Notice does not provide the specific time zone for the Hearing; the Agenda cites "Declaration of conflict of interest with an agenda item". Therefore, I cannot provide a sufficient response because the Rockville Town Council has failed to fulfill its duty to provide specificity regarding what will be discussed at the Hearing.
        b. The Town Council has limited my response as an Owner because it has provided conflicting information in its Notice regarding property "Owners" and "Residents".
    c. The Notice fails to provide clear instructions regarding how Residents and/or Property Owners are to provide their comments before, during and after the Hearing;

    d. The Town Council has failed in the past to provide proper due process rights to ALL residents and property owners. I never received nor signed a waiver of my due process rights from regarding the Town Council of Rockville, Utah.

I hereby request that the Rockville Township Hearing be rescheduled to a time that is convenient to all property Owners and Residents.
