

Guidelines

Word limits are up to you and I'm open to negotiate the length for any works produced. I'm also willing to write multi-chapter fics, but it's ultimately up to you if you want it to be either a oneshot or multi-chapter work. Currently 5 SLOTS are open.

If you have any questions, please contact me on my email address, give me 1 to 2 days to reply to the email though: shadowotimp1097@gmail.com

Rates: $20.00 USD per 1k words.

Methods: Paypal only.

Content:

This is a list of franchises or series I would be glad to write about in no particular order:

Fate/stay night, Fate/Grand Order, Highschool DxD, DC, Marvel, Bleach, One Piece, Konosuba, Demon Slayer, Panty & Stocking, Gurren Lagann, Genshin Impact, Honkai Impact, Honkai Star Rail, Azur Lane, Tsukihime. Do note that this is incomplete and I am gonna add additional series in the future.

I am also willing to take on any series so long as you give me a good idea on what you want to write on it.

I'm open to expanding on your ideas, but I'll need a basic outline to work with. The more detail I have about your idea, the better your story will be.

Kinks: damn near anything so long as it's not Scat, non-con, diapers, watersports, gore, vore, mutilation, most cartoons, OCs. There may be more kinks, but I'll keep you posted in email.

PROCESS

I cannot begin work on a story if you don't provide me with a basic outline. If I'm given an idea but there's no outline to work with, chances are I will decline your request, or otherwise ask you to clarify several things for your request.

I will do my best to craft the scenario you have in mind based on your input. Do not forget to create a basic story outline for your piece. If you decide to set a word count limit for your outline, requests, or framework, please remember that a story of a certain length can only have so much detail. I am open to talking about additional ideas as the writing process progresses, but all of your concepts and expectations for the story must be clear during the early planning stages.

After I have finished your commission, I'll give you the total cost of your story. If you do not agree to the projected costs, I will not move forward with your commission.

Payment proceeds as the following:

1. Once I have completed work with your commission, I'll give you the costs for it based on the word count. Once the payment has been done, I'll post the story.
2. Please keep in mind that costs are based upon the word count of your commission, so if you have any questions please contact me with the email provided at the beginning of the file.

Regarding Idea Discussion and Confirmation:

I will not engage in lengthy discussion about ideas you have not formed yourself, and I will keep personal opinions and input as minimal as possible. Commissions should be based entirely upon your preferences, not mine. I will be happy to help you so the final story is of your desired word count by suggesting additions or removals, and I am more willing to give you a detailed idea about what to expect from the outlines you have presented.

However, I am NOT WILLING to build commission outlines for you. Please keep in mind to know what you want from your commission, as long as that's clear we won't have any problems.

Regarding Rewrites/Alterations:

Rewrites/Alterations can be requested during the writing process. Once a story has been posted, I will refuse any changes unless they were stated during said process.

Final Notes:

I reserve final rights to every commission I produce. You are welcomed to post it if you'd like, but full credits must be stated as belonging to me. Your commission will be posted on Archive of

Our Own, Questionable Questing and HF, but depending on the content of your story, it may be posted only on AO3 and QQ. I'm currently in the middle of making my AO3 account however.
