"Lola Berndt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berndt Jr., 628 Seventeenth street, reported for duty May 3, 1943, at Hunter college, New York City. After finishing her 'boot' training, she was sent to the yeoman training school at Cedar Falls, Ia. Lola finished there in August and went to Great Lakes for duty as a yeoman.

"Yeoman Berndt is thrilled to be close to home, and she does get to Oshkosh occasionally over the weekend. She also goes into Chicago frequently to take in plays and other types of entertainment. Mrs. Berndt says that Lola is very pleased with everything about her job and her life in the navy WAVES. Yeoman Berndt was recently advanced to petty officer second class."
