

Global Book Bag

Title: No Voice too small

Author: Lindsay H Metcalf, Keila V. Dawson, and Jeanette Bradley

Grade Levels: 3-5

Global Competence: Contribute to a better world

This book is about 14 young individuals who wanted something different and better in the world and they all stepped up in their own way to make the world a better place.

In the book bag you will be making a poster to show your voice on something you want changed in the world, or your community.

Bag Contents:

- colored pencils
- cardstock paper
- pencil

Directions:

1. Read the book, then talk about it with a family member.
2. Brainstorm some issues you see in the world or in your community and ways you can help improve it. (Example: homeless and hunger, I can help by making peanut butter sandwiches and handing them out once a week or monthly.)
3. Make a small poster (8X10 paper) about how you can help with the issue. (draw on the poster you handing out sandwiches or making them at home.)

Extended Learning:

- 1.
- 2.
3. Discuss what it means to "[GCI]."
