

Best Italian Restaurants In Miami

<https://travelbillentismedia.tumblr.com/post/613860298110189568>

Miami is a melting pot of many cultures. This can be seen in how the town is designed and the different eateries that are within and without the city. The different cuisines in offer in this great city is bound to wow and give you something different everyday if you desire it.

Italian cuisine in Miami is very popular because the quality of the food churned out by the various Italian eateries is filled with flavor and a freshness that is quite unrivalled. If you are looking for a good Italian food joint, then this article will point you in the right direction. It highlights the spots where you can get good Italian food and some of the dishes you can have while you are there.

Cecconi's When you are looking for a classy Italian joint, then Cecconi's will not disappoint. Famed for using locally sourced and imported ingredients in their dishes, Cecconi's strives to stay ahead of the competition. It is based in the courtyard in the Soho Beach house and also has a bar inside. The bar serves good libations that you can wash down their famous homemade pasta paired with either seafood or beef dishes. Their signature dish you must try is the vitello tonnato douced in caper sauce. Alternatively you can try their goat cheese pizza. Overall, its ambience is rather pleasant with courteous staff who work really hard to ensure your Cecconi's experience is a pleasant one. To learn more about this place, please give them a ring on 786-507-7902 or check out – Click Here.

Also see the best Greek restaurant in Miami, FL – More Info.

CRUST CRUST offers a new and exciting take on Italian dishes. They also strive to create very good gourmet pizzas as well. As soon as you enter the doors of the place, you will notice the stunning interiors that are creatively designed. It also has a 10-seater bar where you can get drinks that you can wash down your meals with or just have during happy hour. Their food menu features very ambitious and tasty pizza variations and Italian dishes. While you are there, you should try their Mediterranean pizza or their truffled pizza. If you want to learn more about this Art Deco district based restaurant, give the a call on 305-371-7065 or visit – Click Here.

Ristorante Fratelli Milano For a genuine taste Italy at the heart of Miami, the Ristorante Fratelli is the place to be. It offers homemade pastas and North Italian-influenced dishes. Its interiors are elegantly designed and it is situated in the most apt place for a waterfront terrace. One of the treats you must try out while you are there is the bombolone. If you want to learn more about this restaurant, please give them a call on 305-373-2300 or visit – Click Here.

Do you know what cheap things to do in Miami, Florida – Website.

Il Gabbiano One of the most high-end Italian eateries in Miami, Il Gabbiano offers its patrons nothing short of a tremendous feasting experience. This place overlooks the Miami River and Biscayne Bay, making for a picturesque dining experience no matter what time of the day it is. At the very moment you enter the doors of Il Gabbiano, you will be presented with complimentary cheeses that will get your palate ready for the entrees you will order later on. While you are there, you should ensure that you try out the risotto ai frutti di mare paired with a champagne glass. As for dessert, you can have the zabaglione or a slice of Italian cheesecake. They basically have something for everyone. For more information on this place please get in touch with them via 305-373-0063 or visit their website – Click Here.

La Locanda La Locanda is the eatery to be when you are craving for good traditional and modern Italian dishes for both lunch and dinner. It is famed for its very intimate and quaint setting. While you are there you should try their ravioli or their linguini. Other things you ought to try include the pizzas and veal dishes. As for the desserts, you have a whole host to choose from which you can chug down with bottle of wine from their wine list. If you want to learn more about La Locanda, please give them a ring on 305-538-6277 or visit them on – Click Here.

Macchialina Macchialina is the place you must visit if you crave an intimate and homely place to enjoy your meals. It is also known for their homemade pastas and red sauces. Their meat and chicken dishes are finger-licking good. While you are there, you should try out their Mediterranean octopus doused in tomato and potato cream. Alternatively, you can try their ricotta salata. There is an extensive wine list which you can pair your meals with. Their cocktail list is very creative and well curated. You are bound to find something you will love on it. As for the dessert dishes, they are very extensive and very scrumptious. You will not be disappointed. You can get in touch with them via 305-538-6277 or visit – Click Here.

MC Kitchen MC Kitchen offers its patrons freshness. They always change up the menu every so often to accommodate new dishes. This is ideal for individuals who are very adventurous and want to try out new dishes. They have a very elegant dining room that can hold up to 145 people at a given time. While you are there, you should try out their artichoke dishes or the rabbit ragout. You can pair your food with any wine from their 450 wines in their list. If you are keen on learning more about this restaurant, please give them a ring on 305-456-9948 or check them on – Click Here.

NiDo Caffe Italian Restaurant For an Italian brunch, lunch or dinner meal, NiDo is the right fit for you. Their mouthwatering menu selections will leave you wanting to come back for more and more. It is known for being the first place to offer homemade mozzarella in Miami. In their menu, you find both classic and modern Italian dishes. While you are there, you can try any one of their meat dishes paired with a good glass of wine. If you are not a fan of wine, then you can wash the meal down with a good cocktail. If you are looking to buy some salamis or wines, the NiDo shop will sort you out. If you want to get in touch with them, give them a call on 305-960-7022 or visit them on – Click Here.

Perricone's Marketplace And Cafe Considered as the best restaurant in South Florida for two decades running, Perricone's Market and Cafe is still going strong, attracting patrons from far and wide. It is the ideal place to visit when you want access to exquisitely prepared gourmet food. Their menu is filled with great Italian cuisine dishes and desserts. It is located in an intimate part of town where the hustle and bustle of South Beach can be rather distracting. If you want to learn more about this place, please give them a call on 305-374-9449 or visit – Click Here.

See why move to Miami, Florida – Info.

Riviera Focacceria Italian Want to take your family out for a great Italian meal? The Riviera Focacceria Italiana is a family-friendly restaurant that offers very good Italian food. Their cuisine is influenced by the cuisine from Liguria. One of the dishes this eatery is famed for is their homemade pasta, pansoti. While you are there, you should also try their Focaccia Chesse or the pesto alla Genovese. Also worth checking out is their dessert offering which ranges from mousse di pistacchio to the Nutella tart. It is open daily. For more information about this place, please get in touch with them through the following number: 786-220-6251 or check out – Click Here.

Salumeria Located in Midtown, this Italian eatery also doubles up as a butchery. In the Salumeria eatery section, you will find a great ambience. The menu selection is diverse and while you are there you should try their gnocchi alla Romana or the lamb neck. Afterwards, you can chow down on one of the desserts offered in the menu like panna cotta or the tiramisu. The meats selection in the butchery section is always fresh and you can take home a cut of specially cured meats or something else. You can get in touch with them through their line 305-424-9588 or check out – Click Here.

Scarpetta Scarpetta has received many plaudits and a few accolades to boot. This Fontainebleau-based restaurant is the place to go if you are looking for very high quality Italian food in Miami. Their menu selection alone will leave your mouth watering at first glance. They have incorporated very intriguing and fun twists on Italian cuisines. For instance, their most sought after dish, foie gras ravioli, is served with a marsala reduction. While you are there, you should try the tuna with ossetra caviar which you can wash down with a bottle from their meticulously curated wine list. Your visit to this AAA Four Diamond Award winner will be a very memorable one but you need to make reservations well in advance to get in. It is one of the toughest places to get into. To learn more about Scarpetta, please give them a call on 305-674-4660 or check out – Click Here.

Soya e Pomodoro Soya e Pomodoro attracts patrons from far and wide for various reasons, with food being one of the primary ones. They offer a creative spin on mouthwatering classics like ravioli with porcini mushrooms. Their entrees include the following: seared bistecca con pepperoni. As for their desserts, you get homemade tiramisu. Their wine list is very carefully curated. The other reason why this place is so popular is the sense of mystique and seductive quality of this hidden away gem reminiscent of a Venetian side street. Their interior as well has laid back feel with a distinct Bohemian influence bringing that eclectic touch together. You can get in touch with them through 305-381-9511 or check out – Click Here.

Toscana Divino For a traditional and modern take on Tuscan dishes, Toscana Divino is the place to be. After cultivating a reputation for using locally sourced ingredients for their dishes and meticulously curating their wine list, Toscana Divino stands a cut above the rest. The quality of their dishes is quite evident in how they pay attention to the small details to present the patron with not just food, but also a work of art. As soon as you sit down at your table in this Tuscan-themed restaurant, you should check out their appetizers first. You have access to ribollita, carpaccio, puttanesca and bruschetta. As for the entrees, the Florentine with smoked potato puree or the pappardelle finocchio. Finally, you can sip on one of their wines. Want to learn more about Toscana Divino, please give them a call on 305-930-6873 or check out – Click Here.

VERO Italian Restaurant For a casual or formal meal in downtown Miami, VERO is the place to be. Its elegant and rustic design provides the patron with somewhat of a Tuscan villa experience.

As for their menu selection, it is very diverse and consists of both modern and classic Italian dishes. While you are there, try out their lobster ravioli or grilled salmon. Thereafter, you can nibble on one of their available desserts like the tiramisu, gelato or panna cotta. It is ideal for the individual who like the option of indoor and outdoor dining. If you want to get in touch with them, please call them on 305-533-1357 or check out – Click Here.

Antica Mare Ristorante Antica Mare Ristorante is an Italian restaurant you must visit if you are looking for a place with a breathtaking view of the Biscayne Bay and great Italian food. It more or less offers its visitors a vicarious Tuscan fare experience. Their exhibition kitchen is always a sight to behold, as the chefs work tirelessly to create signature dishes for the patrons to enjoy. It is more of a culinary orchestra in there, with everyone working there seamlessly under the watchful eye of Chef Ciccio, the chef de cuisine. One of the dishes that you must try while you are there is the spaghetti alla pomarola Toscana with truffle sauce. After you are done with the meal, you can sip on your favorite drink, be it a beer, glass of wine or a cocktail. If you want to learn more about Antica Mare Ristorante, please call 305-398-1001 or check out .

Baccano Wynwood locals will tell you that Baccano is the go-to eatery if you are looking for great Italian dishes paired with good Italian wines. Its quaint and tranquil ambience makes for an intimate and memorable experience every time you enter it. Baccano is widely known for its Neapolitan-style pizza. Their menu selection as well is nothing to shirk at. They have elegant desserts as well. While you are there, you should ask for their signature pizzas: The Santa, Sicily and Vesuvius. These mouthwatering pizzas can then be finished off with the following desserts: lemon sorbet or panna cotta. If you are looking for more information about Baccano call 305-857-5722 or check out – Click Here.

Basilico Ristorante Foodies will tell you that freshness and authenticity are critical qualities that a good eating establishment must meet. This, in part, explains why Basilico Ristorante is one of the most highly sought after Italian eateries in Miami. They are known for using nothing short of the freshest ingredients in their salads and appetizers. As for their entrees, their meat is sourced from the highest quality establishments. One of their most talked about dishes that you ought to consider while you are there, is linguini frutti di mare. It is touted by most who have tried it as the food that will change how you look at food in general because it is so tantalizing. Their wine selection is meticulously put together to ensure that nothing short of the best lands on your table. If you are interested in learning more about what Basilico Ristorante has to offer, please give them a call on 305-871-3585 or check out – Click Here.

Macaluso's Macaluso's makes the bold claim that their food touches all five senses. To an extent, that is true because they quality of the presentation of their food and its taste will leave you asking for seconds. Their dedication to authentic Italian dishes is evidenced by their commitment to use only the freshest ingredients like San Marzanos tomatoes. While you are there, you must try their ricotta-stuffed ravioli or their rigatoni with broccoli rabe. It is the ideal place if you crave an intimate setting for your dinner or lunches. If you want to learn more about Macaluso's, please give them a call on 305-604-1811.

Mama Jennie's Italian Restaurant And Pizzeria Mama Jennies is one of the bastions of Italian cuisine in Miami and has been the go-to place for scrumptious wood-fired pizzas and whose pizza topping selections is unmatched and unrivalled. In addition, they also offer other classic Italian dishes. For over four decades, Mama Jennies has been the ideal Italian restaurant to get one of the best pizzas in Miami and they are still going strong, not letting up in the quality of the food and the service. The latter is evidenced by the diligence the staff exhibits every time they deal with a patron. While you are there, you have access to a sports bar where you can catch all the latest live games on very huge large-screen televisions. Aside from their signature pizzas, you also have access other American style dishes like chicken wings and burgers. If you would like to learn more about Mama Jennies and what they offer, please give them a call on 305-757-3627 or check out – Click Here.

Sapore di Mare Sapore di Mare is the place to be when you are looking for a restaurant with a diverse menu selection and wine list that pairs effortlessly with the dishes on offer. Their chef de cuisine, Valter Mancini is responsible for creating elegant clam, fish and oyster dishes. While you are there, you must try their homemade pasta with a plate of seafood. It is to die for. They have a wine list that features over 100 vintages, each intricately selected to ensure that it pairs nicely with the dishes on offer. As for the service and ambience, they are top-notch and you are guaranteed to become a regular as soon as you enter and leave those doors for the first time. If you want to find out more or want to make a reservation with a stunning view of the Miami waterfront, please call 305-476-8292 or – Click Here.

Spiga Ristorante Italiano If you are looking for a tranquil and quaint Italian eating establishment, you cannot go wrong with Spiga Ristorante Italiano. Started way back in 1995 by Roberto Legrand, this elegantly designed restaurant that has and exquisitely landscaped front garden draws its inspiration from those old Tuscan villas. Their menu selection is simply divine. Its pasta has put this lovely restaurant on the map and while you are there, you should try it to see why it is so widely talked about. Also worth considering while you are there is the pappardelle accompanied with lamb ragout. Alternatively, you can check out their veal scaloppini which you can pair with one of those robust and exquisite wines from the huge wine list in the menu. If you want to learn more about Spiga Ristorante Italiano, please get in touch with them via 305-534-0079 or visit – Click Here.

Sylvano's Restaurant Located in 1925 Liberty Avenue, Sylvano's Restaurant is the place to be if you are looking for classic Italian dishes. Its owner, Sylvano Carrara is committed to providing patrons a one of a kind eating experience that will have you thinking about becoming a regular. This restaurant has two other branches. So it basically means three times the goodness is available. Their menu features traditionally made Italian pizzas, pasta and well-prepared salads. As for the meats, they strive to prepare only the freshest seafood, chicken and grass-fed beef. If you want to catch your regular game on the big screen, then the sports bar will have you covered with their large screen televisions. After you have had your favorite meal, you can imbibe one of the beverages contained in their extensive wine lists and beer. If you would like a cocktail, the mixologists will prepare your fancy. For more information on Sylvano's restaurant, please give them a call on 305-673-3959 or visit their website – Click Here.

The post Best Italian Restaurants In Miami appeared first on Bill Lentis Media.

via Travel - Bill Lentis Media <https://travelbilllentismedia.tumblr.com/>
March 28, 2020 at 03:13PM