

Hi, Kimberly

I recently came across your recent TikTok video discussing people not being interested in a relationship, I think your advice is really helpful, and your tonality and way of delivering information really keeps the viewer engaged,

I visited your site through the link in your bio, and I noticed while your website is good, I think that your coaching sales page could still use a bit of improvement.

I'm reaching out because I believe that you offer some great value for people looking for help with their relationships and that with a few marketing tweaks, you'll see a substantial sales volume increase.

I quickly wrote up a draft of a sales page for you to check out, so you can get a feel for what can be improved on.

I went ahead and pasted the sales page draft in this email. If you like it, reach out to me. I have tons of more insight I would like to share.

Best regards,
Jordan Padayachy

Sales page draft - please note that a final version would have design elements and more accurately targeted at your target market, this is something I had to time to quickly draft up to if you like it.
