

Dear Elflings,

'Tis the season of magic and merriment, and this year, we're adding a dash of elfie charm to the festivities! As the Head Elf, I've got a special mission for each and every one of you.

In the spirit of camaraderie and cheer, we're introducing the Great Elfie Stocking Adventure! Magical stockings will be making their way around the high school, and it's up to you to fill it with a few treats and pass it on to another unsuspecting friend. Our elves are known for their mysterious ways, so be prepared to “sock” a friend when they least expect it.

To make things even more exciting, there's a list of high school personnel located on the wall by the mailboxes in the office. If you're feeling up for the challenge, find your chosen recipient and surprise them with the joyous gift of the Elfie Stocking. However, if you'd rather sit this one out, no worries—simply cross your name off the list. If you find we have missed one of our friends, please add them to the list.

Now, I know Santa is on a bit of a budget this year, so let's keep it simple. No coal, of course! Consider adding items like a fancy pen, some gum, a delightful beverage, or a sweet candy bar. The goal is to spread holiday cheer and bring smiles to our hardworking faces.

Once you've successfully “socked” another person, be sure to cross their name off the list so we can keep the joy flowing throughout the high school. Be sure to hang the “I've been socked” on your door or in your office so other elves know you've already received the stocking! We've all put in a lot of effort this semester, and it's time to celebrate the accomplishments and share the warmth of the season.

Wishing you all a festive and elfie-filled holiday season!

Warmest wishes,

~ The Head Elf
